Heinfetter ,1864 Announcements Kristina Mendicino, 2020-01-01 A study of novelty through analyses of the language of announcement in revolutionary texts Walter Benjamin claimed that the notion of novelty took on unprecedented importance with the growth of high capitalism in the nineteenth century In this book Kristina Mendicino analyzes a selection of canonical texts that reflect profound concern with novelty and its apparent contrary the eternal return of the same including Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra Baudelaire's lyric and prose poetry and Marx and Engels's Communist Manifesto She also addresses Eternity by the Stars by Louis Auguste Blanqui who is less well known and often underestimated in considerations of his significance for revolutionary political theory Mendicino argues that the notion of a novum cannot be understood without attentiveness to the language of announcement not least of all because the new has always been associated with a particular mode of linguistic performance Through close readings of emphatically annunciatory texts she demonstrates how the extreme possibilities of expression that they present through specific citational and rhetorical praxes render the language of announcement overdetermined and anachronistic in ways that exceed any systematic account of historical time and experience This excess in and through language is precisely what opens hitherto unheard of alternatives for conceiving of historical temporality and political possibility Impressive in scope and philosophically sophisticated this erudite and elegantly written book is quite simply dazzling Mendicino successfully tears down many of the tired clichés that too often subtend discussions about novelty and modernism and makes persuasive arguments for her own novel claims about why the appeal to novelty matters so much In her capable hands the question of novelty becomes a lever with which she powerfully pries open familiar texts philosophical traditions and concepts and transforms those recognizable topoi into resources for thinking differently about historical time revolution capital wealth theory and practice Elissa Marder author of Dead Time Temporal Disorders in the Wake of Modernity Baudelaire and Flaubert The New Testament of the English Version of the Polyglott Bible ,1817 American, African, and Old
