Eternal Seduction Jennifer Turner, 2011-02-04 After living on the streets of New York City for over a decade Logan Ellis admits her perceptions might be a little skewed But twisted or not there's a satisfying irony in watching a well dressed vampire stand in the middle of a ghetto alley windblown trash scraping small circles near his feet What she finds even more intriguing is waiting for him to decide whether or not he's going to kill her Kerestyan Nelek hasn't quite made up his mind As the Lord of New York he can't allow a homeless drug addict whose memories are packed with knowledge of vampiric existence to run free in his city It's not the first time he's been in this situation with a human it's just the first time in thousands of years he's come face to face with one who doesn't seem to care And that's what makes the decision so damn difficult What horrors would you have to witness before you went numb How many years would it take for you to feel that way What would it take to make you care again Logan's answers are simple the worst humanity has to offer almost thirty and something she never expected
