Paralympian My Autobiography:

Paralympian Stephen Miller, 2008 Stephen Miller is one of Britain's most successful athletes. His inspirational autobiography tells of his struggles and triumphs and is told with refreshing honesty and infectious humour. Female Olympian and Paralympian Events Linda K. Fuller, 2018-10-04 Female Olympian and Paralympian Events is a groundbreaking book that examines women's sports in the Olympic and Paralympic Games which have long been underappreciated and under analyzed. The book begins with a brief background on women's participation in the Olympic Games and their role relative to the International Olympic Committee then introduces the underlying Gendered Critical Discourse Analysis theory used throughout the book's analysis before delving into a literature review of female Olympians and Paralympians events. It includes a listing of noteworthy firsts in the field followed by individual discussions of twenty-eight Summer and seven Winter events analyzed according to their historical rhetorical and popular cultural representations. Women's unique roles in the various events are discussed; particular athletes and Paralympic events are highlighted and original tables are also included. At the end of each section, affiliated organizations and resources are included in this invaluable referential volume. Maggie Alphonsi: Winning the Fight Maggie Alphonsi, Gavin Mairs, 2023-08-31 Shortlisted for the Sports Book Awards Autobiography of the Year. Maggie Alphonsi is not only a national sporting icon, the face of international women's rugby and star player of the England side that won the World Cup in 2014. She is also an inspirational and totemic figure who transcends sport. The compelling story of her life makes her achievements even more extraordinary. Hers is an against-all-the-odds tale becoming the best player in the world despite having to battle against racism, sexism and prejudice. It is a book forged from the raw emotion, passion and testimony of an iconic player who rose to the elite of world sport when the world was seemingly stacked against her. It is a moving and revealing story of a woman who was not prepared to be defined by anyone but herself and gives the reader a unique insight into how she met her goals. Maggie has changed the way the game is played forever. The Sunday Times. Paralympics and Disability Sport Brett Smith, 2016-04-08 Academic research on the Paralympics and disability sport is growing. University courses, governing bodies and sporting organisations are also witnessing a rise of interest in disabled sport. This book is therefore timely and of importance. Written by leading scholars, it addresses a variety of topics in relation to the Paralympics and disability sport. These include the sociology of Paralympic sport, sport coaching at recreational and elite level, sport history and exercise, rehabilitation, exercise participation and future directions for disability sport research. Throughout the book, disability sport is both celebrated and critically examined. Critical questions are raised and practical suggestions offered about being a Paralympian, coaching athletes with a disability and exercise as a form of rehabilitation. Empirical evidence is drawn from different people and various sports. These range from autoethnographic stories from a former Paralympian to interviews with disability sport administrators to observations of and interviews with coaches of athletes in the sports of adapted water skiing, para swimming and wheelchair basketball rugby and tennis The book will be of interest to sociologists of sport sport coaches sport and exercise psychologists disability scholars qualitative researchers and disability sporting organisations This book was published as a special issue of Qualitative Research in Sport Exercise and Health Personalisation and Dementia Gill Bailey,Helen Sanderson,2013-10-21 Personalisation builds on person centred care to focus on how people with dementia can have more choice and control in their lives and be supported to be part of their community This practical guide explains how to deliver personalised services and support for people with dementia through simple evidence based person centred practices and tools Where Am I? Phil Tufnell,2015-08-27 As England s cricket team compete for the Ashes in Australia ex England spinner Phil Tufnell is enjoying life as a retired cricketer and national treasure When the sporting legend hung up his cricket boots back in 2003 little did he know the dramatic direction his professional life would take next Yet since being crowned King of the Jungle the ex England spin bowler has never looked back and has become a much loved television and radio presenter Cricket s dressing room clown is now broadcasting s joker in the pack Whether it s dining on mealworms on I m a Celebrity displaying his ballroom fleckle on Strictly Come Dancing or causing weekly mayhem for the long suffering host Sue Barker on A Question of Sport millions of us enjoy Tuffers lust for life and endearing sense of humour In Where Am I Phil gamely tries to make sense of the wonderful roller coaster he has been riding these last dozen years delighting fans with a treasure trove of wonderful stories about the places he has been the people he has met the things he has been asked to do but most of all the sheer enormous joy he has had doing it all Five star reader reviews for Where Am I Tuffers at his best A great read full of fun as you expect Proper laugh out loud material from Tuffers but also heartfelt stories about his family I m bowled over by this read An ordinary guy doing extraordinary things all because he enjoyed his cricket Gold Nick Skelton,2017-10-19 With a show jumping career spanning over forty years Nick Skelton is a legend in the equestrian world No other rider has won so many major competitions on so many different horses and he is as popular at Olympia and Hickstead as he is at Aachen Geneva Paris and Spruce Meadows Skelton has competed in eight Olympic Games He was part of the gold medal winning Great Britain team at London 2012 and made history by winning the individual Olympic gold medal at Rio 2016 riding at the age of fifty eight his beloved horse Big Star Nick Skelton began riding at the age of eighteen months on a Welsh pony called Oxo At the age of seventeenth in 1975 Skelton took team silver and individual gold at the Junior European Championships He has competed many times at the European Show Jumping Championships winning numerous medals both individually and with the British team In 1980 he competed in the Alternative Olympics where he helped the British team to a silver medal He still holds the British Show Jumping High Jump record that he set in 1978 In 2000 Skelton was forced into an early retirement after he broke his neck from a serious fall But following an amazing recovery he came out of retirement in 2002 to compete again Now he tells the full story of his eventful life and matchless achievements New Sporting Femininities Kim Toffoletti,Holly Thorpe,Jessica Francombe-Webb,2018-06-25 This edited collection critically explores new and emerging models of female athleticism in an era characterised as postfeminist It approaches postfeminism through a critical lens to investigate new forms of politics being practised by women in physical activity sport and online spaces at the intersections of gender ethnicity sexuality and ability New Sporting Femininities features chapters on celebrity athletes such as Serena Williams and Ronda Rousey alongside studies of the online fitspo movement and women s growing participation in activities like roller derby skateboarding and football In doing so it highlights key issues and concerns facing diverse groups of women in a rapidly changing gender sport landscape This collection sheds new light on the complex and often contradictory ways that women s athletic participation is promoted experienced and embodied in the context of postfeminism commodity feminism and emerging forms of popular feminism

The Age of Spectacular Death Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2020-09-08 This book explores death in contemporary society or more precisely in the spectacular age by moving beyond classic studies of death that emphasised the importance of the death taboo and death denial to examine how we now do death Unfolding the notion of spectacular death as characteristic of our modern approach to death and dying it considers the new mediation or mediatisation of death and dying the commercialisation of death as a marketable commodity used to sell products advance artistic expression or provoke curiosity the re ritualisation of death and the growth of new ways of finding meaning through commemorating the dead the revolution of palliative care and the specialisation surrounding death particularly in relation to scholarship Presenting a range of case studies that shed light on this new understanding of death in contemporary culture The Age of Spectacular Death will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies psychology and anthropology with interests in death and dying
