Dear Eagle Board of Review:

I enthusiastically offer this Eagle Scout Letter of Recommendation in support of Sammy Mwatha's application for the rank of Eagle Scout.

I have known Sammy for nearly twelve years. Sammy and my grandson Brian became fast friends in 2015 when his family moved into our neighborhood in Southern Lines. Each passing year, their friendship only seems to grow deeper.

While my grandson has been blessed with a close-knit social group of friends that has largely remained intact since his junior school years, Sammy has been a dependable and steadfast pal. He is Brian's trusted confidant, a calm voice of reason.

Growing up can be pretty challenging. Teenagers are sometimes forced to make complex and decisions in the face of temptation and a myriad of distractions. There is one particular example in my mind that highlights Sammy's solid values and ethics.

During the boys' sophomore year, a leaked copy of the final physics exam circulated among their classmates. A copy of the illicit document arrived in the email inboxes of Sammy and Brian while they relaxed at our house. While my grandson Brian shillyshallied over whether to open and read the email, Sammy put his foot down and counseled Brian to destroy the email. The boys deleted the email before opening it and disclosed the issue to the school administration.

For Sammy, there was no clear incentive to act this way, but his conscious and sense of right and wrong shined through. I recommend Sammy without reservation.

Please feel to contact me at pete2 @ yahoo . com or (837) 234-7794 if you want more details about Sammy.

*Sincerely,
Peter Barnet*

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
