, The Public Image of Eastern Orthodoxy Heather L. Bailey, 2020-06-15 Focusing on the period between the revolutions of 1848 1849 and the First Vatican Council 1869 1870 The Public Image of Eastern Orthodoxy explores the circumstances under which westerners concerned about the fate of the papacy the Ottoman Empire Poland and Russian imperial power began to conflate the Russian Orthodox Church with the state and to portray the Church as the political tool of despotic tsars As Heather L Bailey demonstrates in response to this reductionist view Russian Orthodox publicists launched a public relations campaign in the West especially in France in the 1850s and 1860s The linchpin of their campaign was the building of the impressive Saint Alexander Nevsky Church in Paris consecrated in 1861 Bailey posits that as the embodiment of the belief that Russia had a great historical purpose inextricably tied to Orthodoxy the Paris church both reflected and contributed to the rise of religious nationalism in Russia that followed the Crimean War At the same time the confrontation with westerners negative ideas about the Eastern Church fueled a reformist spirit in Russia while contributing to a better understanding of Eastern Orthodoxy in the West Bradshaw's Continental Railway Guide (full edition) Bloomsbury Publishing, 2013-01-20 A facsimile edition of Bradshaw's fascinating guide to Europe's rail network Bradshaw's descriptive railway handbook of Europe was originally published in 1913 and was the inspiration behind Michael Portillo's BBC television series Great Continental Railway Journeys It is divided into three sections timetables for services covering the continent short guides to the best places to see and to stay in each city and a wealth of advertisements and ephemeral materials concerning hotels restaurants and services that might be required by the early twentieth century rail traveller This beautifully illustrated facsimile edition offers a fascinating glimpse of Europe and of a transport network that was shortly devastated by the greatest war the world had ever seen British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1881

Heresy, Crusade and Inquisition in Medieval Quercy Claire Taylor, 2011 Investigation of the development of the Cathar heresy in south west France looking at how and why its growth differed across the regions The medieval county of Quercy in Languedoc lay between the Dordogne and the Toulousain in south west France it played a significant role in the history of Catharism of the Albigensian crusade launched against the heresy in 1209 and of the subsequent inquisition Although Cathars had come to dominate religious life elsewhere in Languedoc during the course of the twelfth century the chronology of heresy was different in Quercy In the late twelfth century nearby abbeys were still the main focus of devotional activity inquisitors' discoveries in the 1240s point to the previous twenty years as the period when Catharism and also the Waldensian heresy took a firm hold most dramatically in its far north This study deals with the cultural and political origins of the religious change Its careful analysis offers a significant re-evaluation of the nature and social significance of religious dissidence and of its protection and persecution in both the history and historiography of Catharism Dr Claire Taylor is Associate Professor School of History University of Nottingham Journal of the Society of Chemical Industry Society
