Paris Capitale Du Crime:

PARIS, Capitale du Destin - Parisis Code 4 Thierry Van de Leur, The Invention of Terrorism in France, 1904-1939 Chris Millington, 2023-09-26 The Invention of Terrorism in France 1904 1939 investigates the political and social imaginaries of terrorism in the early twentieth century Chris Millington traces the development of how the French conceived of terrorism from the late nineteenth century notion that terrorism was the deed of the mad anarchist bomber to the fraught political clashes of the 1930s when terrorism came to be understood as a political act perpetrated against French interests by organized international movements Through a close analysis of a series of terrorist incidents and representations thereof in public discourse and the press the book argues that contemporary ideas of terrorism in France as unFrench that is contrary to the ideas and values however defined that make up Frenchness emerged in the interwar years and subsequently took root long before the terrorist campaigns of Algerian nationalists during the 1950s and 1960s Millington conceptualizes terrorism not only as the act itself but also as a political and cultural construction of violence composed from a variety of discourses and deployed in particular circumstances by commentators witnesses and perpetrators In doing so he argues that the political and cultural battles inherent to perceptions of terrorism lay bare numerous concerns not least anxieties over immigration antiparliamentarianism representations of gender and the future of European peace Police and Politics in Marseille, 1936-1945 Simon Kitson, 2014-05-01 Simon Kitson s Police and Politics in Marseille 1936 1945 offers a history from below analysis of the attitude of the Marseille Police between the Popular Front and the Liberation of France Kitson highlights the specificities of policing France s largest port clientelism corruption a floating population and high levels of criminality including organised crime But he also demonstrates why many of his conclusions about Police attitude can be generalised to other parts of France and in so doing challenges many of the assumptions of the existing historiography Although they zealously hunted down Jews and communists the Police were not as reliable for the Vichy government as is commonly assumed and were undoubtedly far more involved in Resistance than most sectors of society The Place de la Bastille Keith Reader, 2011 From the bustling March d Aligre market to the comparatively new Op ra Bastille the Place de la Bastille is among the Paris s most richly protean areas Also known as the Faubourg Saint Antoine the Bastille quarter has long been a bastion of working class solidarity and a regular site of political agitation such as the infamous storming of the Bastille Home to a popular and sometimes raffish nightlife scene in the early twentieth century it now serves an ethnically and socially mixed community while bearing many traces of its vibrant past From the earliest days to the present Keith Reader offers here a fascinating look at the rich historical and cultural geography of the Place de la Bastille For readers keen to explore this remarkable area firsthand the book also includes a map and walking tour , Crime Fiction in the City Lucy Andrew, Catherine Phelps, 2013-04-30 Crime Fiction in the City Capital Crimes expands upon previous studies of the urban space and crime by reflecting on the treatment of the capital city a repository of authority national identity and culture within crime fiction This wide ranging collection looks at capital cities across Europe from the more traditional centres of power Paris Rome and London to Europe s most northern capital Stockholm and also considers the newly devolved capitals Dublin Edinburgh and Cardiff The texts under consideration span the nineteenth century city mysteries to contemporary populist crime fiction The collection opens with a reflective essay by Ian Rankin and aims to inaugurate a dialogue between Anglophone and European crime writing to explore the marginalised works of Irish and Welsh writers alongside established European crime writers and to interrogate the relationship between fact and fiction creativity and criticism within the crime genre

Realms of Memory Pierre Nora, Lawrence D. Kritzman, 1996 The third and final volume in Pierre Nora s award winning for Volume I REALMS OF MEMORY which includes groundbreaking discussions of France s past powerfully demonstrates how a nation can both recover and rediscover its identity through remembrance how rewriting history can forge new paradigms of cultural identity and how meanings attached to an event can be as significant as the event itself 146 illustrations
