Personal Best Margaret Watson, 2013-11-30 The minute Tess Phillips crossed the finish line in the Chicago Marathon her life began to change As the female winner in this year's race she was handed a check for fifty thousand dollars The money would keep her fledgling recycling business afloat for awhile but there was one catch If she wanted to keep the money she had to let a local sports writer shadow her for an entire week

Although Tess didn't mind sharing her training tips she couldn't afford to have a reporter prying into her personal life. Especially a reporter like Nick Bartholomew. With his mocking grin, his aggressive style and his intense blue eyes, Nick wouldn't let one detail slip by. Once Nick started nosing around Tess's business problems, they were sure to leak out. She had to avoid him even if he was the most attractive man she'd ever met. From the start, Nick Bartholomew was not pleased with this assignment. He was sure that Tess Phillips was a complete fraud. No one could win a marathon on their first try. But one look at Tess's clear blue eyes made Nick doubt his reporter's instincts. They weren't the eyes of a hustler. They were too trusting, too vulnerable. If a man stared into Tess Phillips's eyes long enough, he would begin to believe in all sorts of fairy tales. Before he lost his objectivity, Nick had to cut to the chase. It was time to uncover Tess's secret, and he was the best man for the job.

Female Masculinity Jack Halberstam,2019-01-05 In this quintessential work of queer theory Jack Halberstam takes aim at the protected status of male masculinity and shows that female masculinity has offered a distinct alternative to it for well over two centuries Demonstrating how female masculinity is not some bad imitation of virility but a lively and dramatic staging of hybrid and minority genders Halberstam catalogs the diversity of gender expressions among masculine women from nineteenth century pre lesbian practices to contemporary drag king performances Through detailed textual readings as well as empirical research Halberstam uncovers a hidden history of female masculinities while arguing for a more nuanced understanding of gender categories that would incorporate rather than pathologize them He rereads Anne Lister s diaries and Radclyffe Hall s The Well of Loneliness as foundational assertions of female masculine identity considers the enigma of the stone butch and the politics surrounding butch femme roles within lesbian communities and explores issues of transsexuality among transgender dykes lesbians who pass as men and female to male transsexuals who may find the label of lesbian a temporary refuge Halberstam also tackles such topics as women and boxing butches in Hollywood and independent cinema and the phenomenon of male impersonators Featuring a new preface
