Potter, 2015-06-09 This book explores how we make sense of ourselves when work is precarious and intrinsically alienating We know little about how this experience of work impacts the lives of men and women and less about the way individuals understand themselves in the face of institutions and organizations from which they feel marginalized Based on the narratives of men and women who underwent extraordinary work life changes Crisis at Work examines how we negotiate greater meaning and fulfilment when our productive lives fail to sustain and satisfy Reflecting a growing fracture between what we value believe in and are committed to and the degree to which work and career have become incapable of assuaging those desires Potter examines how individuals attempt to assemble working lives they find rich and rewarding and how that work is negotiated within the constraints and possibilities of the contemporary moment Teaching With Author Web

Sites, K 8 Rose Reissman, Mark Gura, 2010 Drawing on extensive classroom experience the authors demonstrate how shy students reluctant readers English language learners and students who may be less active during class discussion become energized when they explore rich Web sites available from popular respected children s authors This book illustrates how this easy no risk technology available at a keystroke offers wide ranging benefits including Inviting students into a literacy community of readers and writers Fostering the development of discrete test mandated skills Capitalizing on and deepening students familiarity with the digital world in ways that enhance their literacy growth Self-Help in the Digital Age

Loredana Filip, 2024-09-23 In an age where science and technology hold sway and the humanities face a crisis this book explores the evolving role of literature It delves into how American self help culture shapes contemporary ideals of success mindfulness and happiness with a particular focus on its influence in science communication notably in TED talks Moreover it underscores the enduring relevance of literature in the digital era by analyzing speculative novels that challenge established norms including those propagated by TED These novels include Richard Powers Generosity An Enhancement Margaret Atwood's MaddAddam trilogy and Gary Shteyngart's Super Sad True Love Story They question the Western preference for visual perception which perpetuates a human centric worldview By focusing on literary synesthesia in the readings this book emphasizes sensory experiences and human nonhuman interactions It adopts the concept of research as assemblage and uses a diverse range of theories and approaches while it foregrounds critical posthumanism and new materialism Ultimately it advocates for a less anthropocentric approach to reading and presents literature as a transdisciplinary life science capable of fostering a kinship of posthumanity

Transgender Experience Chantal Zabus, David Coad, 2013-11-26 This collection by trans and non trans academics and artists from the United States the UK and continental Europe examines how transgenderism can be conceptualized in a literary biographical and autobiographical framework with emphasis on place ethnicity and visibility The volume covers the 1950s to the present day and examines autobiographical accounts and films featuring gender transition Chapters focus on various stages of transitioning Interviews with trans people are also provided

Telling Women's Lives Judy Long, 1999-05-01 For centuries the great man format and masculine discourse of biography and autobiography have eclipsed women If we accept this history we remain ignorant of Lady Sarashina a Japanese woman of the Heian period whose book survives from the 11th century We overlook Margaret Cavendish and Dame Julian two early English autobiographers And we fail to consider sufficiently slave narratives oral histories or lesbian coming out stories Telling Women's Lives assesses existing traditions of autobiography and biography in search of a method capable of conveying the distinctive content of women's lives while retaining the tenor of feminine subjectivity Drawing on feminist research methodologies of the past two decades as well as anthropology and sociology Long paves the way for the formulation of an emergent feminist methodology for telling women's lives This highly original study seeks to revise and recreate the genre so as to accommodate a feminine discourse narrator reader and subject The messiness of women's lives the daily work and detail that men have programmatically excluded acquires new meaning as Long develops here an innovative theory of sociobiography
