Pragmatic Randomized Clinical Trials Cynthia J. Girman, Mary E. Ritchey, 2021-04-08 Pragmatic Randomized Clinical Trials Using Primary Data Collection and Electronic Health Records addresses the practical aspects and challenges of the design implementation and dissemination of pragmatic randomized trials also sometimes referred to as practical or hybrid randomized trials While less restrictive and more generalizable than traditional randomized controlled trials such trials have specific challenges which are addressed in this book The book contains chapters encompassing common designs along with advantages and limitations of such designs analytic aspects in planning trials and estimating sample size and how to use patient partners to help design and operationalize pragmatic randomized trials Pragmatic trials conducted using primary data collection and trials embedded in electronic health records including electronic medical records and administrative insurance claims are addressed This comprehensive resource is valuable not only for pharmacoepidemiologists biostatisticians and clinical researchers but also across the biomedical field for those who are interested in applying pragmatic randomized clinical trials in their research Addresses typical designs and challenges of pragmatic randomized clinical trials pRCTs Encompasses analytic aspects of such trials Discusses real cases on operational challenges in launching and conducting pRCTs in electronic health records

Sport Development in the United States Peter Smolianov, Dwight Zakus, Joseph Gallo, 2014-09-15 The development of both elite high performance sport and mass participation grassroots level sport are central concerns for governments and sports governing bodies This important new study is the first to closely examine the challenges and opportunities for sports development in the United States a global sporting giant with a unique market driven sporting landscape Presenting an innovative model of integrated sports development the book explores the inter relationship between elite and mass sport across history drawing on comparative international examples from Australia to the former USSR and Eastern bloc countries At the heart of the book is an in depth empirical study of three traditional and emerging sports in the US tennis soccer and rugby that offer important lessons on the development of elite sport methods for increasing participation and the establishment of new sports in new markets No other book has attempted to model sports development in the United States in such depth before Therefore this should be essential reading for all students researchers administrators or policy makers with an interest in sports development sports management sports policy or comparative international sport studies

Not Here, Not Now Anthony Dunne, Fiona Raby, 2025-05-06 What it means to design at a time when for many people the future seems to have become an impossibility When reality fails us what can designers do Question design's relationship to reality as Anthony Dunne and Fiona Raby do in this exhilarating yet thoughtful journey to the edges of science philosophy and literature to find new ways of thinking about the possible and about the meaning function and place of design in that speculative world of not here not now A conceptual travelogue of sorts Not Here Not Now brings together words images and objects that capture in design form some of the ideas encountered along the way

Itself a design experiment the richly illustrated book explores ways to bring these ideas into conversation with objects through imagined archives libraries glossaries taxonomies lists tales and essays The design responses in Not Here Not Now to a stone raft for example or a vegetable lamb swatches of imaginary colors a pocket universe in the home objects undergoing space time collapse are like the most compelling utopias impossible by design aiming instead to nourish the creative intellectual and imaginative ground from which new possibilities still unknown might begin to emerge The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1916 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1916 The Publisher ,1916 British Books ,1916 ESRC Newsletter ,1985 Issues in Aging Mark Novak,2018-02-02 Issues in Aging combines social psychological biological and philosophical perspectives to present a multifaceted picture of aging Novak illustrates both the problems and the opportunities that accompany older age This text helps students understand the tremendous variability in aging and introduces them to careers working with older adults This new edition reflects the continued changes in the way we age The fourth edition has been updated to include emerging issues in aging These include the prevalence of HIV AIDs in later life current research on mental potential in old age the creation of age friendly cities and new options for end of life care Each chapter begins with a set of learning objectives to guide students in their reading and concludes with a list of main points questions for discussion or study suggested readings and relevant web sites to consult Each chapter also includes up to date charts and graphs as well as key terms to help students understand the issues presented Break out boxes reveal the human side of aging through the stories of individuals in real life and in the media Canadian Journal of Earth Sciences ,2016
