Heetland, 2020-07-21 A problem facing many churches today is the lack of strong leadership in the area of stewardship particularly the stewardship of financial resources Church leaders clergy and laity have had little or no training in this area and they feel uncomfortable and embarrassed in encouraging financial support for the church's ministries Failure to provide decisive leadership in this area has had negative consequences for the church including a decreasing percentage of charitable dollars directed toward churches and a growing lack of understanding among church members of the relationship between giving and spiritual growth Creating Generous Congregations is written to assist church leaders in gaining necessary expertise in the stewardship of financial resources so that persons will be invited to grow spiritually and the various ministries of the church will flourish Take Him to the Streets Jonathan Gainsbrugh, 1985 The Pastoral Search Journey John Vonhof, 2010-03-01 Most churches have sought out a new pastor many times yet search committees often feel as though they are inventing the process from scratch In The Pastoral Search Journey John Vonhof provides detailed guidance for search committees to ensure a good match between pastor and congregation This is Vonhof's third book about the pastoral search but the first to discuss interim pastors transitions between pastors and the use of the Internet and digital media Vonhof advises congregational leaders on establishing the search committee ensuring the congregation is cared for during the pastoral vacancy conducting the congregational self study and creating an information packet finding communicating with and interviewing candidates determining selection criteria as well as evaluating and recommending candidates managing call negotiations and finally welcoming the congregation's new pastor Sample letters forms and other tools are provided The Living Church, 1958 Planting Missional Churches Ed Stetzer, 2006-05-01 Planting Missional Churches is an instruction book for planting biblically faithful and culturally relevant churches It addresses the how to and why issues of church planting by providing practical guidance through all the phases of a church plant while taking a missional look at existing and emerging cultures Marriage Ministry Guide Focus on the Family, 2003-05-21 This resource is much more than a mere leader's guide for the Focus on the Family Marriage Series it is a manual for developing and sustaining a ministry to marriages in your church and community With marriages in our culture and even the Church in dire straits there is a desperate need for the Church and its leaders to stand in the gap for families and marriages Gleaned from ministries around the nation this manual contains information on how and where to begin types of ministry settings staffing and organization of the ministry It also includes basic information on learning styles and how to teach adults develop lessons and encourage discussion It will also include reproducible forms publicity aids and clip art as well as a listing of additional resources Churchworks Anne Odin Heller, 1999 Accessible and ingenious this handbook uses the human body as a metaphor for the congregation and provides essential advice for growing and sustaining a healthy church Seasons of Hope Leader's Guide M. Donna MacLeod, 2023-12-01 Seasons of Hope is a unique grief support program for Catholics that focuses on the spiritual side of grieving the death of a loved one. It invites those who mourn to accompany one another and to meet Christ through scripture prayer reflection and simple activities that offer comfort and help to foster healing and spiritual growth. The updated Seasons of Hope Leader's Guide and four journals can be used by a parish grief ministry. Individuals are also able to use the journals for personal reflection and prayer. You can start with any of the four journals each of which covers a standalone season of six sessions that each have their own theme rooted in a passage from scripture. The Seasons of Hope program was created by author M. Donna MacLeod following the death of her daughter and has been used in thousands of parishes by tens of thousands of people since its original release in 2007. Updates to the new edition of the Leader's Guide include a new introduction, a new chapter about offering group sessions online, revised content and activities that meet the challenges and needs of the contemporary Church and culture, an updated resource list, access to online facilitator training materials and information about caring for those living with grief from losses such as suicide, overdose, miscarriage and other child loss, natural disasters or homicide. The Leader's Guide continues to include FAQs about creating and sustaining successful grief ministries in your parish. It also provides outlines and scripts for the six group sessions of each season. Those sessions include scripture prayer reflection activities and faith sharing. The Seasons of Hope Journals which are perfect for individual and group use have been revised with a new introduction and updated resource listings. The journals also include Bible references, reflections, prayers and space for writing.

Women Mentoring Women Vickie Kraft, Gwynne Johnson, 2003-01-01. The 21st Century has brought a new urgency for Christian women to search for meaningful relationships where they can live out their faith. This is due in part to our increasingly secular lifestyle and the radical changes in marriage and family life that have isolated and discouraged many women. Women Mentoring Women offers the solution to a chronic weakness in churches: the lack of involvement of wives, sisters, mothers and daughters in vital women's ministries.

Sider,2005-10-06 Recent years have seen unprecedented attention to faith based institutions as agents of social change spurred in part by cuts in public funding for social services and accompanied by controversy about the separation of church and state The debate over faith based initiatives has highlighted a small but growing segment of churches committed to both saving souls and serving society What distinguishes faith based from secular activism How do religious organizations express their religious identity in the context of social services How do faith based service providers interpret the connection between spiritual methodologies and socioeconomic outcomes How does faith motivate and give meaning to social ministry Drawing on case studies of fifteen Philadelphia area Protestant churches with active outreach Saving Souls Serving Society seeks to answer these and other pressing questions surrounding the religious dynamics of social ministry While church based programs often look similar to secular ones in terms of goods or services rendered they may show significant differences in terms of motivations desired outcomes and interpretations of meaning Church based programs also differ from one another in terms of how they relate evangelism to their social outreach agenda Heidi Rolland Unruh and Ronald J Sider explore how churches navigate the tension between their spiritual mission and the constraints on evangelism in the context of social services The authors examine the potential contribution of religious dynamics to social outcomes as well as the relationship between mission orientations and social capital Unruh and Sider introduce a new vocabulary for describing the religious components and spiritual meanings embedded in social action and provide a typology of faith based organizations and programs Their analysis yields a framework for Protestant mission orientations that makes room for the diverse ways that churches interrelate spiritual witness and social compassion Based on their observations the authors offer a constructive approach to church state partnerships and provide a far more objective understanding of faith based social services than previously available We Must Hear All the Stories Chief Nnamdi A.
