Sandf Budget Speech:

Guns & Roses: Comparative Civil-Military Relations in the Changing Security Environment Steven Ratuva, Radomir Compel, Sergio Aguilar, 2019-01-04 This edited volume provides a critical and comparative discussion of the changing synergy between the military and society in the dramatically transforming global security climate drawing on examples from the Asian Pacific African Middle Eastern European and South American regions The book is interdisciplinary and covers wide ranging issues relating to civil military relations democratization regional security ethnicity peace building and peace keeping civilian oversight internal repression gender regime change and civil society African Security Governance Gavin Cawthra, 2009 Africa faces a seemingly ever increasing range of security challenges This book is a result of research carried out by the Southern African Defense and Security Management Network SADSEM on new and emerging security issues in cooperation with the Danish Institute for International Studies and the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung The focus is on security governance the role of state and a wide range of social actors in the areas of both human and state security It deals with a range of sectors themes and national case studies and makes an important contribution to debates on security sector reform The topics covered include policing transformation intelligence governance regulation of private security actors challenges of nuclear proliferation regional security peace diplomacy and peace missions the relationship between development and security and new challenges in governance of the military Publisher's description Salut, 1995

Strategic Review for Southern Africa, 2003 Debates of the National Council of Provinces (Hansard) South Africa Parliament (1994-). National Council of Provinces, 2002 South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world South African Military Yearbook, 1998

Promised Land: Exploring South Africa's Land Conflict Karl Kemp, 2020-10-04 Land reform and the possibility of expropriation without compensation are among the most hotly debated topics in South Africa today met with trepidation and fervour in equal measure But these broader issues tend to obscure a more immediate reality a severe housing crisis and a sharp increase in urban land occupations In Promised Land Karl Kemp travels the country documenting the fallout of failing land reform from the under siege Philippi Horticultural Area deep in the heart of Cape Town s ganglands to the burning mango groves of Tzaneen from Johannesburg s lawless Deep South to rural KwaZulu Natal where chiefs own vast tracts of land on behalf of their subjects He visits farming communities beset by violent crime and provides gripping on the ground reporting of recent land invasions with perspectives from all sides including land activists property owners and government officials Kemp also looks at burning issues surrounding the land debate in South Africa corruption farm murders illegal foreign labour mechanisation and eviction and reveals the views of those affected Touching on the history of land conflict and conquest in each area as well as detailing the current situation on the ground Promised Land provides startling insights into the story of land conflict in South Africa
