

Payoff Statement

The first section of the payoff statement provides information about the loan, including the loan number, the lender's name, and the date the statement was generated. It also includes the current balance of the loan, the interest rate, and the remaining term of the loan.

The second section of the payoff statement provides information about the payoff amount. It includes the total amount needed to pay off the loan, including any prepayment penalties or fees. It also includes the date by which the loan must be paid off and the name of the lender to whom the payment should be made.
