"Tell It to Us Easy" and Other Stories Judith Musser, 2011-12-14 During the Harlem Renaissance several literary periodicals encouraged African American women to submit poetry short stories essays or other literary contributions for publication Opportunity magazine was one such periodical that made immeasurable contributions to the careers of many female African American writers This anthology collects all of the short stories published in Opportunity by African American women during the magazine's 25 years of publication It includes works by both well known authors Zora Neale Hurston Marita Bonner and more obscure writers There is also an additional African tale translated by Violette de Mazia a white woman known for promoting African American art It also includes an introduction which contextualizes the short stories historically in light of the overall development of African American writing

The red-hot dollar, and other stories from the Black Cat Herman Daniel Umbstaetter, Jack London, 2025-01-22 It lacked three minutes of five by the big clock in the tower when the east bound Chicago express rumbled into the station at Buffalo The train had not yet come to a standstill when a hatless man jumped from the platform of the rear sleeping car and ran across the tracks into the depot restaurant A few minutes later he reappeared carrying a cup of coffee in one hand and a small paper bag in the other With these he hurriedly made his way back to the car through a straggling procession of drowsy tourists who were taking advantage of the train's five minutes stop to breathe the crisp morning air The last of these had already resumed his seat when the man without a hat again appeared at the lunch counter returned the borrowed dishes and ordered coffee for himself He had just picked up the cup and was raising it to his lips when the conductor's All aboard rang through the station

Empty churches : The rural-urban dilemma Charles Josiah Galpin, 2025-04-24 In Empty

Churches The Rural Urban Dilemma Charles Josiah Galpin critically examines the profound socio economic and cultural shifts that have precipitated the decline of rural churches in America Drawing on meticulous field research Galpin employs an analytical narrative style that combines sociological rigor with a compelling storytelling approach He situates the church s diminishing role within broader themes of urbanization and modernization highlighting how rural communities grapple with their identities and traditions in an increasingly urban centric society The book delineates the tension between faith and community offering a poignant reflection on what these empty spaces symbolize in the contemporary American landscape Charles Josiah Galpin a prominent sociologist and theologian dedicated much of his life to exploring the intersections of religion community and social change His upbringing in a small rural town coupled with his extensive academic background imbues his work with both personal insight and scholarly depth Galpin s reflections are shaped by his keen observations on the pastoral life and the changing dynamics of faith in modern society making him uniquely positioned to address this pressing issue Empty Churches is essential reading for scholars clergy and lay readers alike Galpin s thoughtful analysis not only unpacks the complexities surrounding rural religious life but also prompts vital questions about the future of faith communities in a rapidly changing world It is a clarion call to understand the implications of empty churches and to consider pathways toward revitalization Hearst's International ,1919 Hearst's ,1919 McClure's Magazine ,1915
