Building Character Through Multicultural Literature Rosann Jweid, Margaret Rizzo, 2004 A comprehensive reference to 50 titles that will help children cultivate ethics assume personal responsibility and practice moral judgment in unfamiliar cultural contexts Bibliographies and Literature of Agriculture ,1978 A Parent/Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance Bob Blumenthal, 2005 How do you teach children to value peace and appreciate diversity One way is to provide them with books with themes that promote these ideas The Parent Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance offers readers a wide variety of award winning titles along with annotations and grade level recommendations The book is divided into the following sections Preschool grade three Grades 4 6 Middle school and High school Each section has over 100 listings Topics include civil rights the Holocaust slavery Native Americans bullying war child abuse bigotry cooperation acceptance apartheid family relationships Arab Israeli conflict controlling anger the Civil War the Vietnam War WWII gays and lesbians and other social issues Many of these books are the recipients of the following awards and honors Newbery Award School Library Journal starred review Caldecott Award Boston Globe Horn Book Award American Library Association Notable Book Jane Addams Children's Book Award American Bookseller Pick of the List Kirkus Reviews starred review Publishers Weekly starred review Booklist starred review Coretta Scott King Award VOYA Top Picks National Book Award and the Michael L Printz Award This guide is an excellent resource for parents who would like their children to become peace loving accepting adults Teachers who are looking for books to supplement their curriculum will find the suggested titles to be among the best written works in the designated areas For example one would be hard pressed to find a better written book on the Holocaust for middle and high school students than I Have Lived One Thousand Years The author has done a great service by providing parents and teachers with a list of books that cannot be found anywhere else Ugandan Children's Literature and Its Implications for Cultural and Global Learning in TEFL Stephanie Schaidt, 2018-01-15 The present study adds to TEFL discourse in several ways First of all it contributes to the widening of the canon as it focuses on Ugandan childrens fiction Secondly the research connects to the few empirical studies that exist in the field It provides further implications for cultural and global learning and literary didactics in TEFL derived from insights into the mental processes of a group of Year 9 students in Germany engaging with Ugandan childrens fiction within the scope of an extensive reading project Teaching Young Learners in a Superdiverse World Heather Lotherington, Cheryl

Paige, 2017-04-07 This book documents a collaborative action research project in one school where researchers and practitioners worked together to develop multimodal literacies and pedagogies for diverse multilingual elementary classrooms Following chronologically from Lotherington s Pedagogy of Multiliteracies 2011 this volume picks up after teachers and researchers have learned how to work efficiently as a learning community to offer project based learning approaches This edited collection relates how teachers and students of different grade levels language backgrounds and abilities developed a shared agenda and created a framework for effective and inclusive practices Contributors demonstrate that collaboration creative pedagogical solutions and innovative project based learning are all essential parts of learning and teaching socially appropriate and responsive literacies in a multimodal superdiverse world Exploring Identity

Development and Self Leilya A. Pitre, Mike P. Cook, 2021-02-15 This book offers readers opportunities to explore the most common universal themes taught in secondary English Language Arts classrooms using contemporary young adult literature Authors discuss adolescence and adolescent readers young adult literature and its possibilities in the classroom and ways to teach thematic analysis The book provides context traditional approaches to teaching and examples of thematic explorations of each of the chosen themes Chapters include developed teaching instructional units to study three universal themes a journey of self discovery good vs bad right vs wrong and making difficult choices and developing positive self perception Each instructional unit includes rationale essential questions and objectives calendar plans for up to six weeks examples of introductory reading and discussing and enrichment activities and assessments The activities target academic skills for ELA curricula and create safe spaces for exploring topics of identity struggles and personal growth complicated by social issues all of which adolescents face today Each instructional chapter suggests a wide range of additional texts and resources for theme explorations The World of Islam in Literature for Youth Rajinder Garcha, Patricia Yates Russell, 2006-01-24

The World of Islam in Literature for Youth will aid librarians parents students teachers school media specialists and other readers who are interested in identifying helpful resources on the topic of Islam and the Muslim culture Divided into 16 chapters that reflect the different aspects of Islam and the Muslim culture this annotated bibliography covers more than 700 books instructional materials videos DVDs audio tapes and online resources each with a complete bibliographical description title author s name place of publication publisher year number of pages and ISBN both for hard copy and paper if available and recommended grade levels Digital electronic resources in addition to the above bibliographic description also include length of running time producer and whether in black white or color The authors wrote this book with the goal of making available reliable information about this often misunderstood religious tradition Many of the resources emphasized are not typically featured in existing bibliographies databases and libraries Author title grade subject and illustrator photographer indexes are included This valuable reference tool provides educators with a means to easily identify resources for use in promoting the understanding of Islam Religious Thought and Life in India Sir Monier Monier-Williams, 1885
