NASA Technical Memorandum ,1994      The Calendar University of Calcutta,1909      Scientific Authorship Mario Biagioli,Peter Galison,2014-01-27 Since the seventeenth century our ideas of scientific authorship have expanded and changed dramatically In this ambitious volume of new work Mario Biagioli and Peter Galison have brought together historians of science literary historians and historians of the book Together they track the changing nature and identity of the author in science both historically and conceptually from the emergence of scientific academies in the age of Galileo to concerns with large scale multiauthorship and intellectual property rights in the age of cloning labs and pharmaceutical giants How for example do we decide whether a chemical compound is discovered or invented What does it mean to patent genetic material Documenting the emergence of authorship in the late medieval period authorship s limits and its fragmentation Scientific Authorship offers a collective history of a complex relationship      Orissa Gazette Odisha (India),1964      How We Teach Science John L. Rudolph,2019-06-01 Despite an enduring belief that science should be taught there has been no enduring consensus about how or why This is especially true when it comes to teaching scientific process John Rudolph shows that how we think about and teach science will either sustain or thwart future innovation and determine how science is perceived by the public      Brotherhood of the Bomb Gregg Herken,2013-08-13 The scientists who made the nuclear bomb are the focus of this detailed engrossing history of one of the greatest scientific discoveries of the 20th century Publishers Weekly The story of the twentieth century is largely the story of the power of science and technology Within that story is the incredible tale of the human conflict between Robert Oppenheimer Ernest Lawrence and Edward Teller the scientists most responsible for the advent of weapons of mass destruction The story of these three men builders of the atomic and hydrogen bombs is fundamentally about loyalty to country to science and to each other and about the wrenching choices that had to be made when these allegiances came into conflict In Brotherhood of the Bomb Gregg Herken gives us the behind the scenes account based upon a decade of research interviews and newly released Freedom of Information Act and Russian documents      Calendar University of Calcutta,1923 Includes Examination Papers      A Change in the Weather Tim Sherratt,Tom Griffiths,Libby Robin,2005 Climate plays a considerable role in the society and culture of Australia This text is an interdisciplinary weather report that draws together perspectives from the social sciences the humanities science and engineering to deepen our understanding of the relationship between climate and culture in Australia      Resources in Education ,1990      The Sale Catalogues of British Government Publications, 1836-1921 Great Britain.
