Redeemed Sunday Schools Manual:

Word Made Global Mark R. Gornik, 2011-07-22 A groundbreaking work of ethnography urban studies and theology Mark Gornik's Word Made Global explores the recent development of African Christianity in New York City Drawing especially on ten years of intensive research into three very different African immigrant churches Gornik sheds light on the pastoral spiritual and missional dynamics of this exciting global transnational Christian movement The Churchman's Manual of Methods Alford Augustus Butler, 1910 Spirit and Power Donald E. Miller, Kimon H. Sargeant, Richard Flory, 2013-08-15 An exploration of the global growth and social and political impact of Pentecostalism Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa Global Religious Movements Across Borders Stephen M. Cherry, Helen Rose Ebaugh, 2016-04-22 From global missionizing among proselytic faiths to mass migration through religious diasporas religion has traveled from one side of the world and back again It continues to play a prominent role in shaping world politics and has been a vital force in the continued emergence spread and creation of a transnational civil society Exploring how religious roots are shaping organizations that seek to aid people across political and geographic boundaries service movements this book focuses on how religious movements establish structures to assist people with basic human needs such as food clothing shelter education and health Examining a multitude of faith traditions with origins in different parts of the world seven contributing chapters with an introduction and conclusions by the senior author offer a unique discussion of the intersections between religious transnationalism and social movements The African Diaspora and the Study of Religion T. Trost, 2007-12-25 This book focuses on the location of the religious heritage of Africa within the academic study of religion including indigenous African religions African Christianities African American forms of Islam the religions of African Americans Afro Caribbean religions and Afro Brazilian religions The Sunday-school World , 1881 Transnational Religious Spaces Philip Clart, Adam Jones, 2020-07-06 This volume bringing together work by scholars from Europe East Asia North America and West Africa investigates transnational religious spaces in a comparative manner by juxtaposing East Asian and African examples It highlights flows of ideas actors and organizations out of into or within a given continental space These flows are patterned mainly by colonialism or migration The book also examines cases where the transnational space in question encompasses both East Asia and Africa notably in the development of Japanese new religions in Africa Most of the studies are located in the present a few go back to the late nineteenth century The volume is rounded off by Thomas Tweed's systematic reflections on categories for the study of transnationalism his chapter Flows and Dams critically weighs the metaphorical language we use to think speak and write about transnational religious spaces

Nigeria's Christian Revolution Richard Burgess, 2008 Nigeria has become the arena of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its root in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millennium It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands As such it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio political and economic developments such as decolonization and civil war as well broader processes such as modernization and globalization

A New Paradigm of Pentecostal Power Asonzeh F. K. Ukah, 2008 Ukah describes with great historical and sociological incisiveness one of the prime movers of this transformation the Redeemed Christian Church of God RCCG which has more than 10 000 congregations in more than 80 countries around the world

International Sunday School Evangel, 1903

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to African Religions Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2012-05-21 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to African Religions brings together a team of international scholars to create a single volume resource on the religious beliefs and practices of the peoples in Africa Offers broad coverage of issues relating to African religions considering experiences in indigenous Christian and Islamic traditions across the continent Contributors are from a variety of fields ensuring the volume offers multidisciplinary perspectives Explores methodological approaches to religion from anthropological philosophical and historical perspectives Provides insights into the historical developments in African religions as well as contemporary issues such as the development of African initiated churches neo traditional religions and Pentecostalism Discusses important topics at the intersection of culture and religion in Africa including the arts health politics globalization gender relations and the economy

The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender Adrian Thatcher, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Theology Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender These topics are not merely contentious and pervasive they have escalated in importance within theology Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by some of the foremost scholars in the discipline this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in these areas Divided into eight thematic sections the Handbook explores methodological approaches contributions from neighbouring disciplines sexuality and gender in the Bible and in the Christian tradition controversies within the churches and within four of the non Christian faiths and key concepts and issues The final extended section considers theology in relation to married people and families gay and lesbian people bisexual people intersex and transgender people disabled people and to friends This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research The Expository Times
