Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando,Adriaan van Klinken,2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

The Bible Book by Book: A Manual J.B. Tidell,2018-04-04 Reproduction of the original The Bible Book by Book A Manual by J B Tidell

Word Made Global Mark R. Gornik,2011-07-22 A groundbreaking work of ethnography urban studies and theology Mark Gornik s Word Made Global explores the recent development of African Christianity in New York City Drawing especially on ten years of intensive research into three very different African immigrant churches Gornik sheds light on the pastoral spiritual and missional dynamics of this exciting global transnational Christian movement

Transnational Religious Spaces Philip Clart,Adam Jones,2020-07-06 This volume bringing together work by scholars from Europe East Asia North America and West Africa investigates transnational religious spaces in a comparative manner by juxtaposing East Asian and African examples It highlights flows of ideas actors and organizations out of into or within a given continental space These flows are patterned mainly by colonialism or migration The book also examines cases where the transnational space in question encompasses both East Asia and Africa notably in the development of Japanese new religions in Africa Most of the studies are located in the present a few go back to the late nineteenth century The volume is rounded off by Thomas Tweed s systematic reflections on categories for the study of transnationalism his chapter Flows and Dams critically weighs the metaphorical language we use to think speak and write about transnational religious spaces
