

REFLECTIVE JOURNAL EXAMPLE FOR STUDENT TEACHERS

Anyone who thinks the teaching profession is easy, let's try the next exercise.

Take time in one day and make 5 speeches, each of which should be completed 45 minutes, about anything that you personally understand. Bear in mind that your audience needs to be interested and motivated to attention, listening, understanding, and adopting this speech. Of course, you should also think of several interesting tasks and activities that will encourage your audience to participate and interact.

Tomorrow, get up and dress up and take the city 30 minutes to an hour, go home, turn on the TV and boost it. Stop standing in front of that TV and in 45 minutes tell that speech and everything you've prepared to speak louder than the TV. With time, gradually increase the TV (because student attention decreases and becomes more and more disinterested) and continues to speak louder than the TV. By the way, of course, you have to keep track of what's on the screen and the program you are watching. Whenever a household member passes, you answer all his questions and meet all his demands.

Of course, do not forget all that time to be comfortable and calm and have a smile on your face to contribute to a better atmosphere in the room.

After 45 minutes, take a break of 5 minutes, but then amplify the TV so you can enjoy your vacation in school. If possible, let your baby run a few times next to you or go to your brother or sister. You calmly and skillfully resolved this situation so everyone would be happy.

Then return the TV to the initial setting (still louder than usual), take your second prepared speech, assignments, and activities and repeat all in the next 45 minutes. Again the same rest of 5 minutes and again all over again, 45 minutes. It works 5 times in a row.

Then invite a neighbor to you, with whom you have a problem and spend 45 minutes with it, calmly and courteously resolving this problem, explaining why and why it came up and suggesting how to solve it efficiently.

When you're done, sit back in the car and drive around town 30 minutes to an hour. Go home, rest a little (wonder if you want to turn on the TV or have the power to play with your kids), then sit down and prepare 5 new talk for tomorrow. Repeat this exercise for 5 days in a row so tell me and tell if you still believe our job is easy.

Well, that is your professorship week without paperwork, excuses, writing annual, monthly and operational plans, education, planning, and everything else. Just a working week.

Developing Personal, Social and Moral Education through Physical Education Anthony Laker, 2002-01-04 Personal social and moral development through physical education and sport is a relatively under researched area Most teaching concentrates on the performance aspect of physical education while the National Curriculum requires teachers to address a number of non physical outcomes such as learning rules teamwork cooperation and competition This timely book redresses that balance by providing classroom practitioners and student teachers with practical advice and tried and tested suggestions for activities and strategies to help them use physical education as an effective vehicle for the all round personal development of the individual Tony Laker pays particular attention to curriculum development planning units of work and lesson planning considering different types of assessment and suggestions on which forms are most appropriate for measuring programme effectiveness and the personal development of pupils the role of the reflective practitioner and a framework within which teachers can reflect on their practice Through using an extensive range of diagrams photos and bulleted lists Laker makes this guide a concise and accessible read giving practitioners the opportunity to extend and develop their abilities in teaching this subject

Supervising Student Teachers Alexander Cuenca, 2013-02-11 The student teaching experience is often considered one of the most influential aspects of teacher preparation Key in the success of student teaching is the university supervisor During the student teaching experience the university supervisor is mainly responsible for helping pre service teachers relate university coursework with the situated experiences in schools However much like the various other spaces and places in teacher education facilitating teacher learning is an incredibly complex endeavor This edited volume addresses the complexities of supervising student teachers from three distinct vantage points First salient issues regarding the supervision of student teachers such as the preparation of novice supervisors negotiating power in the student teaching triad and the low status of clinical teacher education are examined Second different pedagogical frameworks for the work of supervision are provided such as care theory teacher education for democracy and social justice Finally future directions for field based teacher education are discussed such as a call to reconsider where supervision takes place the necessity to develop a pedagogy of supervision 21st century trends facing clinical teacher education and the value added by university supervisors to teacher development Each of these chapters engage the supervision of student teachers through a mix of research theory and personal stories from the field As such this edited volume is designed for new supervisors veteran supervisors and supervision scholars

Developing Reflective Practice J. John Loughran, 2002-11 This text presents a research study into the development of reflective practitioners in a pre service teacher education programme The teacher educator in the study modelled his own reflections on practice in the hope that it would help students to apply reflection to their own teaching The results of the author's research demonstrate that reflection on practice occurs in three distinct periods before anticipatory during contemporaneous and after retrospective a pedagogical experience The book concludes that when student teachers own learning situations both within their university coursework and their school experiences become the focus for their learning about teaching and learning their understanding of and practice in teaching is enhanced Routledge Library Editions:

Education Mini-Set N Teachers & Teacher Education Research 13 vols Various, 2021-06-23 Dealing with all aspects of teacher education in the past 50 years the 13 books in this set originally published between 1969 and 1996 discuss how the education system in the UK has changed the impact of restructuring on teachers teacher expectations around the world and other important topics in the sociology of education and teacher research Early Language Learning and Teacher Education

Subhan Zein, Sue Garton, 2019-02-26 Language teacher education is widely identified as one of the most important areas that needs addressing in order to improve early language instruction yet research into teacher education for early language teachers remains relatively sparse This volume responds to this gap by compiling studies with diverse methodological tenets from a wide range of geographical and educational contexts around the world The volume aims to enhance understanding of early language teacher education as well as to address the need to prepare early language teachers and assist them in their professional development The chapters focus on the complexity of teacher learning innovations in mentoring and teacher supervision strategies in programme development and perceptions and knowledge and assessment in early language learning teacher education The volume offers comprehensive coverage of the field by addressing various aspects of teacher education in different languages The contributions highlight examples of research into current practice in the professional enhancement of early language learning teachers but with an emphasis on the implications for practitioners The Brain-Targeted Teaching Model for 21st-Century Schools Mariale M.

Hardiman, 2012-02-15 Compatible with other professional development programs this model shows how to apply relevant
