Relatives Christopher Van Wyk:

Chris van Wyk – Irascible Genius Kevin van Wyk, 2024-07-01 When he died in 2014 author Chris van Wyk left behind an impressive literary legacy The scope of his work was broad poetry children s books short stories and biographies But perhaps he is best remembered for his memoir Shirley Goodness Mercy which chronicles his growing up in Riverlea and introduces us to the colourful characters who helped to shape his life and inform the stories he wrote The public persona of this witty and wise raconteur was well known but behind it was a family man who liked nothing better than to spend time with his two sons Kevin and Karl his wife and childhood sweetheart Kathy and the friends and family who were his primary sources of inspiration Using the unique vantage point of oldest son Kevin van Wyk s astute observations of his father and the strong bond they enjoyed throughout Chris s life have resulted in a memoir that is as affectionate as it is entertaining In taking us behind the scenes into the Van Wyk household we witness the inner workings of the mind of a storyteller from the flowering of his father s activism wit and wisdom to the sources of his occasional quirky outbursts If storytelling runs in the genes Kevin may just be proof that his father s spirit lives on

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Identities Leon De Kock, Peter Southey, 2002 Who are we and how do we define ourselves This may seem a simple question but in South Africa over the past few decades the issue of identity has been the source of much conflict deep suffering and ultimately liberation

Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie

Shirley, Goodness and Mercy Chris van Wyk, 2015-04-01 Shirley Goodness Mercy is a heart warming yet compellingly honest story about a young boy growing up in Newclare Coronationville and Riverlea during the apartheid era Despite Van Wyk s later becoming involved in the struggle this is not a book about racial politics Instead it is a delightful account of one boy s special relationship with the relatives friends and neighbours who made up his community and of the important coping role laughter and humour played during the years he spent in bleak and dusty townships In Shirley Goodness Mercy Chris van Wyk poet novelist and short story writer had created a truly remarkable work at once both thought provoking and vastly entertaining

Post-Traumatic: South African Short Stories Chris van Wyk, Vagn Plenge, 2008-12-25 The contributors of this anthology make up a wide spectrum of South Africans black white men and women established and budding who write in either English or Afrikaans Among these are writers who began their careers in the fifties George Weideman to those who were active in the black consciousness period of the seventies Achmat Dangor Chris van Wyk Maropodi Mapalakyane through to writers who first appeared in print in the eighties and nineties Rayda Jacobs Finuala Dowling Zachariah Raphola Roshila Nair Roy Blumenthal Allan Kolski Horwitz While many of the writers in this anthology have established themselves as poets novelists dramatists and oral storytellers they all choose the short story as another means of expressing a diverse South Africa of rural and urban life white suburbia black township childhood love hate reconciliation the grim as well as the funny that make up the tapestry of a country as it used to be and as it is today

South African Foreign Policy Review: Volume 1 Chris

Landsberg, Jo-Ansie van Wyk, 2012-12-27 The richness of public and academic discourses on the past present and future direction of South Africa's role in Africa and the world suggests that as a sub discipline of politics South African foreign policy is ready for a systematic and regular appraisal in the form of a series of publications that the Institute for Global Dialogue will call South African Foreign Policy Review This is also because constant changes in international and domestic circumstances impinge on the management and analysis of South Africa's foreign policy This the first review provides an important opportunity to build on existing foreign policy works in order to take stock of the road already travelled in the past decade or so This is crucial in laying some basis for anticipating the country's future role and considering the opportunities and challenges which future volumes of the review will consider This volume provides a wide ranging appraisal of the relationship between stated foreign policy goals and actual outputs and outcomes an assessment of how foreign policy has actually been operationalized and implemented To this end common themes in South African foreign policy provide the framework for the first review These include foreign policy decision making soft power dynamics in the foreign policy's strategic calculus diplomatic tools used economic diplomacy peace diplomacy and paradiplomacy South Africa's relations with key states in Africa in the global south and in the global north South Africa's approach to Africa multilateral global multilateralism governance The review hopes to stimulate further discussion and thinking on the challenges confronted and the future shape and direction of South Africa's foreign policy South African Foreign Policy Review: Volume 1, 2012

Beyond the Ancient Quarrel Patrick Hayes, Jan Wilm, 2017 In Plato's Republic Socrates spoke of an ancient quarrel between literature and philosophy which he offered to resolve once and for all by banning the poets from his ideal city Few philosophers have taken Socrates at his word and out of the ancient quarrel there has emerged a long tradition that has sought to value literature chiefly as a useful supplement to philosophical reasoning The fiction of J M Coetzee makes a striking challenge to this tradition While his writing has frequently engaged philosophical subjects in explicit ways it has done so with an emphasis on the dissonance between literary expression and philosophical reasoning And while Coetzee has often overtly engaged with academic literary theory his fiction has done so in a way that has tended to disorient rather than affirm those same theories wrong footing the normal processes of literary interpretation This volume brings together philosophers and literary theorists to reflect upon the challenge Coetzee has made to their respective disciplines and to the disciplinary distinctions at stake in the ancient quarrel The essays use his fiction to explore questions about the boundaries between literature philosophy and literary criticism the relationship between literature theology and post secularism the particular ways in which literature engages reality how literature interacts with the philosophies of language action subjectivity and ethics and the institutions that govern the distinctions between literature and philosophy It will be of importance not only to readers of Coetzee but to anyone interested in the ancient quarrel itself The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Eggs to Lay, Chickens to Hatch Chris van Wyk, 2010-07-01 Agnes the Van Wyks Zulu housekeeper had a special friendship with young Chris in the late sixties to early seventies He would defend her whenever she came to work with a hangover on a Monday morning and made a mess of the cleaning In turn Agnes never told on Chris when he played truant from school As the years passed the two grew closer swapping stories about coloureds and Zulus life in Riverlea and Soweto pass laws politics and falling in love She taught him to count in Zulu and he promised to teach her to read in English Whenever the clock ran against her Agnes would stop almost in mid sentence grab a broom or cloth and declare I have to rush I have eggs to lay chickens to hatch What an odd ungrammatical thing to say Chris often mused But many years later he played a CD by Louis Jordan a 1940s American jazz singer and it all became clear Eggs to lay chickens to hatch forthcoming end April 2010 is Chris van Wyk s second childhood memoir about growing up in Riverlea and his colourful interactions with the men and women who lived the African proverb that it takes a village to raise a child But mostly it is the story of a wonderful friendship between a young coloured boy and a Zulu woman     Yusuf Dadoo Chris Van Wyk,2006     Running with Rhinos Ed Warner,2016-03-01 Running with rhinos is not a euphemism not when you re ground support for the International Rhino Foundation s Rhino Conservancy Project Edward M Warner a self proclaimed radical conservationist presents his outrageous adventures from more than a decade of collaboration with the veterinarians and biologists who care for endangered rhinos in Africa Few if any laymen like Warner have been invited to do what amounts to some of the most dangerous volunteer fieldwork around Fewer than five thousand black rhinos remain in the wilds of sub Saharan Africa About five hundred live on private conservancies in Zimbabwe For Warner working on the frontlines of rhino conservation not only allowed him to help rhinos it gave him the opportunity to pursue and refine his emerging philosophy of radical conservationism to cultivate partnerships between local communities and private landowners in Africa and to export the lessons about land and wildlife management back home to the United States In Running with Rhinos Stories from a Radical Conservationist Warner takes readers along as he weasels his way into becoming volunteer ground support for the International Rhino Foundation s Rhino Conservancy Project or Rhino Ops in Zimbabwe It is gritty sweaty sometimes scary and exhilarating work Warner succeeds in telling a remarkable story of the extraordinary bonds between humans and their dedication to protecting endangered animals all while weaving eye opening stories about the flora fauna geology geography and politics of sub Saharan Africa     Dickens and the Children of Empire W.
