Leisure Services Management Amy R. Hurd, Robert J. Barcelona, Jo Ann M. Zimmerman, 2023-11-01 Leisure Services Management Third Edition With HKPropel Access outlines the essential knowledge and skills that successful managers must learn and it assists students in building those competencies. The text prepares students for the Certified Park and Recreation Professional CPRP qualifying exam and for the challenges they'll face in their future careers in commercial recreation, public agencies, and the nonprofit sector. Throughout the text, there are activities, projects, and examples to help students connect competencies to real-world situations. Leisure Services Management begins by presenting a firm foundation of competency-based management. Students will examine the scope of leisure management, management responsibilities, and how a manager can affect an agency and its customers. They will also explore specific management areas such as marketing, financial management, human resources, employee development, communication, and evaluation. For each chapter, the ancillaries offer experiential learning activities that simulate on-the-job situations. Each of these activities asks students to assume the role of a manager and address common management issues by completing a work assignment or project. These activities will facilitate student development and help students gain essential management competencies. Other learning aids include learning objectives, review questions, key terms, and a glossary to reinforce student learning. In addition to updated references that provide contemporary management perspectives, the third edition features the following: Expanded content on social media, planning, and international leisure. A new chapter focusing on diversity, equity, and inclusion to broaden students' perspectives. From the Field sidebars which offer readers a glimpse of what happens in the field so they can better understand what they will be facing in the future. Leisure Services Management has related online learning activities delivered via HKPropel. These activities include flash cards and undergraduate and graduate level case studies for each chapter. Chapter quizzes which are automatically graded may be assigned by instructors to test comprehension of critical concepts. Students can also access a list of competencies tested in the CPRP exam and a competency scorecard to track their development relative to professional standards. These online resources will help students build useful knowledge and apply the information. The competency-driven approach of Leisure Services Management Third Edition assists readers in gaining the knowledge and practicing the skills needed to begin a career in leisure management. Bolstered by the practical information in this text, new managers can contribute to the success of their organization as they enjoy the challenges and rewards of their career. Note: A code for accessing HKPropel is not included with this ebook but may be purchased separately.

Review of the Trade and Commerce of Cincinnati Cincinnati (Ohio). Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Exchange, 1914 Great Boards for Small Groups Andy Robinson, 2006 Yours is a good board but you want it to be better. You want clearly defined objectives. Meetings with more focus. Broader participation in fundraising. And more follow-through between meetings. You want these and a dozen other tangibles and intangibles that will propel your board from good to great.

Say hello to your guide Andy Robinson who has a real knack for offering forehead slapping solutions Of course Why haven't we been doing this Take what he says about written agreements among board members Any meaningful job description must be reciprocal it defines what is expected of you but also what you can expect in return Example I accept fiduciary responsibility for the organization and will oversee its financial health and integrity By the same token I expect timely accurate and complete financial statements to be distributed at least quarterly one week in advance of the relevant board meeting In other words the board knows what to expect the staff knows what to do Each is accountable Simple right So why does the 10 item sample agreement Robinson provides seem so revolutionary Perhaps because so few people have tried an agreement like this Then there's what the author calls the Fundraising Menu Here board members are asked to generate a list of all the ways direct and indirect they could assist in fundraising The list is prioritized and then used to help each trustee prepare a personalized fundraising agreement that meets his or her specific needs interests and limitations Again simple but it's the closest thing you'll find to guaranteeing a board's commitment to raising money Toward the end of his book in a number of How to Fix It chapters Robinson homes in on specific problems such as poorly attended meetings spotty follow through on commitments inactive board members narrow consensus conflicts of interest weak agendas and much more And Robinson doesn't offer up easy nostrums Quite the opposite Over the past 20 years as a board member a volunteer and a consultant he's put into practice what he preaches and stands unshakably behind his fog burning advice Great Boards for Small Groups contains 31 brief chapters In fact the whole book can be read in an hour Funny thing though its impact on those who heed its advice will last for years Clearinghouse Review, 1989 The Executive Director's Guide to Thriving as a Nonprofit Leader Mim Carlson, Margaret Donohoe, 2010-04-16 As the position of nonprofit ED becomes more demanding there is a need for an up to date resource This revised edition of the best selling book is filled with management advice for succeeding as an executive director This new edition includes thoroughly updated information and new content It covers topics on timely issues and practical strategies including Avoiding Burnout Accountability Professional Networking Financial Literacy Measuring Effectiveness and much more Ideal for ED's and board members the book also includes new cases and stories from the field and practical tips sidebars Billboard, 1960-07-04 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends
