Redirect Timothy D. Wilson, 2024-09-24 A psychologist and keen observer of the human condition explains how tweaking our personal narratives can have a huge effect on our lives Kirkus Reviews What if there were a magic pill that could make you happier turn you into a better parent solve a number of your teenager's behavior problems reduce racial prejudice and close the achievement gap in education There is no such pill but story editing the scientifically based approach described in Redirect can accomplish all of this The world renowned psychologist Timothy Wilson shows us how to redirect the stories we tell about ourselves and the world around us with subtle prompts in ways that lead to lasting change Fascinating groundbreaking and practical Redirect demonstrates the remarkable power small changes can have on the ways we see ourselves and our environment and how we can use this in our everyday lives There are few academics who write with as much grace and wisdom as Timothy Wilson Redirect is a masterpiece Malcolm Gladwell Literacy Practices and Perceptions of Agency Bronwyn T. Williams, 2017-07-06 In this book Bronwyn T Williams explores how perceptions of agency whether a person perceives and feels able to read and write successfully in a given context are critical in terms of how people perform their literate identities Drawing on interviews and observations with students in several countries he examines the intersections of the social and the personal in relation to how and crucially why people engage successfully or struggle painfully in literacy practices and what factors and forces they regard as enabling or constraining their actions Recognizing such moments and patterns can help teachers and researchers rethink their approaches to teaching to facilitate students sense of agency as writers and readers A Review of the Current Legal Landscape Bryan P. Schwartz, Darcy MacPherson, The Manitoba Law Journal MLJ is a peer reviewed journal founded in 1961 The MLJ's current mission is to provide lively independent and high caliber commentary on legal events in Manitoba or events of special interest to our community The MLJ aims to bring diverse and multidisciplinary perspectives to the issues it studies drawing on authors from Manitoba Canada and beyond Its studies are intended to contribute to understanding and reform not only in our community but around the world Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter E. Stanly Godbold, Jr., 2022 This dual biography of Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter the thirty ninth President and the First Lady chronicles their personal and professional relationships and their business and political successes The second volume of their dramatic story is filled with the emotional and political ups and downs of their lives as they managed a large family attempted to use their presidency to bring peace human rights and justice to all peoples of the world and dedicated the remainder of their long lives to making a safer more caring world Reading and Writing Cancer: How Words Heal Susan Gubar, 2016-05-17 An important addition to the literature of cancer by an award winning scholar and memoirist Elaborating upon her Living with Cancer column in the New York Times Susan Gubar helps patients caregivers and the specialists who seek to serve them In a book both enlightening and practical she describes how the activities of reading and writing can right some of cancer's wrongs To stimulate the writing process she proposes specific exercises prompts and models In discussions of the diary of Fanny Burney the stories of Leo Tolstoy and Alice Munro numerous memoirs novels paintings photographs and blogs Gubar shows how readers can learn from art that deepens our comprehension of what it means to live or die with the disease From a writer whose own memoir Memoir of a Debulked Woman Enduring Ovarian Cancer was described by the New York Times Book Review as moving and instructive and incredibly brave this volume opens a path to healing

Why Fish Don't Exist Lulu Miller, 2020-04-14 A Best Book of 2020 The Washington Post NPR Chicago Tribune Smithsonian A remarkable Los Angeles Times seductive The Wall Street Journal debut from the new cohost of Radiolab Why Fish Don't Exist is a dark and astonishing tale of love chaos scientific obsession and possibly even murder At one point Miller dives into the ocean into a school of fish comes up for air and realizes she's in love That's how I felt Her book took me to strange depths I never imagined and I was smitten The New York Times Book Review David Starr Jordan was a taxonomist a man possessed with bringing order to the natural world In time he would be credited with discovering nearly a fifth of the fish known to humans in his day But the more of the hidden blueprint of life he uncovered the harder the universe seemed to try to thwart him His specimen collections were demolished by lightning by fire and eventually by the 1906 San Francisco earthquake which sent more than a thousand discoveries housed in fragile glass jars plummeting to the floor In an instant his life's work was shattered Many might have given up given in to despair But Jordan He surveyed the wreckage at his feet found the first fish that he recognized and confidently began to rebuild his collection And this time he introduced one clever innovation that he believed would at last protect his work against the chaos of the world When NPR reporter Lulu Miller first heard this anecdote in passing she took Jordan for a fool a cautionary tale in hubris or denial But as her own life slowly unraveled she began to wonder about him Perhaps instead he was a model for how to go on when all seemed lost What she would unearth about his life would transform her understanding of history morality and the world beneath her feet Part biography part memoir part scientific adventure Why Fish Don't Exist is a wondrous fable about how to persevere in a world where chaos will always prevail

Step Back Joseph L. Badaracco, 2020-07-14 How to find clarity amid the turbulence of work and life We all wish we had more time to pause and reflect about small decisions and big goals and everything in between But since we live and work in a vortex of tasks meetings decisions and responsibilities we rarely get the chance to step back In this practical guide bestselling author and Harvard Business School professor Joseph Badaracco argues that you don't need long periods of solitude and tranquility to reflect well In fact reflection can take place in the cracks and crevices of your very busy life and these moments can help you understand your feelings look at problems from different perspectives focus on what really matters and ultimately lead a better life Building on candid interviews with over a hundred executives and professionals as well as on the classic works of Marcus Aurelius Michel de Montaigne and Ignatius of Loyola Badaracco offers simple customizable principles and ideas for reflection that lend a gentle discipline to an otherwise nebulous process Concise smart and pragmatic Step Back is the guide you need to
