The Soul Reader Gerard D. Webster,2011-07-06 The Soul Reader is the exciting sequel to Gerard Websters award winning debut novel In Sight The two people Ward McNulty most wished he could forget were the woman he once loved and the man he still hated He succeeded sometimes by smothering their memory under mounds of activityhis physical rehabilitation looking for a job and staving off foreclosure But try as he might it was always therejust under the surface like smoldering embers embedded in layers of ash needing only a breath of oxygen to burst into flame And thats exactly what happens one sunny Saturday afternoon when Carrie Hope unexpectedly breezes back into his life It is a year after his fathers murder when Carrie asks Ward to assist her in writing a book about the North Beach Project the money laundering scheme that led to his father's death Ward initially turns her down He knows that reopening the investigation would be dangerous for three reasons First it could cost them their lives the identity of the man behind the scheme remains a mystery and he would do almost anything to keep it that way Secondly it may cost Ward his very soul if he gets sucked back into the vortex of hatred and revenge that he has just escaped And finally Ward does not know if he or Carrie could survive falling in love and hurting each other yet again But when Carrie decides to pursue the investigation without him Ward is faced with a difficult choice he can allow her to go it alone and possibly get killed or he can join her in hopes of being able to protect her Ward's uncanny insight might give him an edge and allow him to see the evil coiled in the jumbled foliage of the North Beach Project before it has a chance to strike He decides to collaborate with her on the book but on his terms and thereby launches a series of events that span the globe from Colombia to Rome and make Ward and Carrie the target of the most dangerous assassin in the western hemisphere a man known only as Culebra It is in seeking justice that Ward discovers mercy and love once again
