Dear Parents and Guardians,

Welcome to the new school year at [Your Company Name]! We are excited to have your child join us as we embark on another year of learning and growth. Our dedicated team of educators is committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment where every student can thrive.

As we begin this year, I want to highlight some of our goals and initiatives:

- 1. Academic Excellence: Our curriculum is designed to challenge and engage students at every level. This year, we will be focusing on enhancing our STEM programs and introducing project-based learning to encourage critical thinking, creativity, and collaboration, ensuring that students are well-prepared for their future endeavors.
- 2. Social-Emotional Learning: We believe that emotional well-being is just as important as academic achievement. Our school will continue to implement the Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) program, which promotes a positive school culture, encouraging respect, responsibility, and resilience among our students.
- 3. Parent Involvement: We value your partnership in your child's education. Throughout the year, we will host various events, such as family literacy nights and parent-teacher conferences, aimed at strengthening our community. We encourage you to participate and share your ideas, as your involvement is crucial to your child's success.
- 4. Communication: We are committed to keeping you informed about your child's progress and school activities. Please ensure that we have your updated contact information. Don't hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns, and be sure to check our monthly newsletters and website for important updates.

Adoptive and Foster Parent Screening James L.

Dickerson, Mardi Allen, 2012-10-12 Screening applicants for adoption or foster homes has life altering consequences for the children involved yet there are incredibly few programs available to train screeners The educational system that certifies thousands of social workers each year does not understand the specialized training required to screen adoptive and foster parents social work schools provide minimal interview training and what training they do provide focuses on therapeutic interview techniques rather than screening skills There is a clear need for a book like Adoptive and Foster Parent Screening one that can be incorporated into course requirements and used by working social workers and psychologists involved with adoption and foster parent screening Adoptive and Foster Parent Screening written by a former social worker who has placed hundreds of children into adoptive and foster homes and a clinical psychologist meshes the best of psychology and social work experience into a definitive guide for screening adoption and foster home applicants The book provides information on evaluating aberrant behavior and unhealthy parenting attitudes interview techniques psychological testing Adoptive and Foster Parent Screening is based on case histories research data and interpretive analysis The book is written in an accessible style free of technical language thus making it appropriate for college level students and professionals who don't have time to sift through empirical data to obtain accessible information that they can adapt to their profession
