Re: Matthew Batey

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Batey worked for Church Plumbing & Heating for approximately one and a half years from October, 2014 through May, 2016. In that time he assisted us with a variety of activities including customer service, scheduling & dispatching for a group of seven technicians, and a number of marketing initiatives. His position was eliminated as a part of the generational transfer of company ownership.

I have known Matt personally since we attended high school together at Elkhart Memorial, graduating in 1996. In addition to serving his country as a Marine, Matt is a dedicated and hard-working team-player. He has always been willing to help out where needed and take on additional assignments. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any specific questions.

Sincerely,

The Letters and Diaries of John Henry Newman Volume IX John Henry Newman, 2006-02-23 John Henry Newman 1801-90 was brought up in the Church of England in the Evangelical tradition An Oxford graduate and Fellow of Oriel College he was appointed Vicar of St Mary's Oxford in 1828 from 1839 onwards he began to have doubts about the claims of the Anglican Church and in 1845 he was received into the Roman Catholic Church He was made a Cardinal in 1879 His influence on both the restoration of Roman Catholicism in England and the advance of Catholic ideas in the Church of England was profound This volume covers a crucially important and significant period in Newman's life The Church of England bishops continuing condemnation of Tract 90 plus Pusey's two year suspension for preaching a university sermon on the Real Presence are major factors in Newman resigning as Vicar of St Mary's Oxford His doubts about the Church of England are deeper and stronger than ever and he is moving closer to Rome William Lockhart's sudden defection to Rome in August 1843 precipitates his resignation He preaches his final Anglican sermon The Parting of Friends and retires into lay communion at Littlemore The first edition of University Sermons including the celebrated sermon on theological development virtually sells out within a fortnight The Zurich Letters Hastings Robinson, 1845 The Zurich Letters, Comprising the Correspondence of Several English Bishops and Others, with Some of the Helvetican Reformers, During the Early Part of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth Hastings Robinson, 1845 The Zurich Letters \(second Series\) Hastings Robinson, 1845

Mr Secretary Peel Norman Gash, 2011-04-21 Norman Gash s magnificent two volume life of Sir Robert Peel Mr Secretary Peel 1961 and Sir Robert Peel 1972 is the standard work on the great statesman and is widely considered one of the great biographies of 19th century prime ministers Faber Finds is delighted to return both to print beginning with Mr Secretary Peel As Gash puts it memorably Peel born in 1788 in the world of Gibbon and Joshua Reynolds of stage coaches highwaymen and the judicial burning of women died in 1850 in the age of Faraday and Darwin of Punch railway excursions trade unions and income tax Over the course of Peel s life Britain was remodeled and it may be argued that Peel himself did more than any other political figure in reconciling the new forces in society with its older institutions But as a politician Peel could be a controversial figure his pragmatism pressing him into unpopular decisions The son of an industrial millionaire his instincts were for the cause of good government over narrow party interest Norman Gash interpreted Peel as the intellectual founder of the modern Conservative Party an aristocratic administrator and natural consensus politician who believed in courting the urban middle class as well as landowners and farmers Mr Secretary Peel carries its subject s story from birth through his entry into politics in Ireland his early positions in Tory governments his tenure as Home Secretary from 1822 which included his establishing of the Metropolitan Police Force and up to the struggles over the issue of Catholic Emancipation A rich and perceptive portrait of a statesman in the making Philip Ziegler Telegraph monumental comprehensive controversial study is the first volume of a definitive history of the churches in Germany between the wars It is especially significant in that it is based on a great deal of original research into both religious and political sources and is the first book to work on the presupposition that an accurate picture of the churches in the Third Reich demands that both Protestant and Roman Catholic churches are studied side by side since it was the rivalry between the churches that in some ways contributed to their downfall Contrary to what has often been asserted Professor Scholder argues that Hitler did have a plan for the churches over a long period Crucial to that plan on the Catholic side was his desire for a concordat parallel to that achieved by Mussolini keeping the clergy out of politics which the Vatican was over hasty to meet it was the attempt to treat the Protestant churches in a similar way to the Catholic church which led to the difficulties that ended in the church struggle There is also a realistic analysis of the Jewish question documenting the churches failure in this area with severity and scholarly rigor The first part covers developments up to Hitler s seizure of power the second is devoted to the year 1933 during which all the major issues were in fact decided
