

The 21st century was just taking its first steps when Peter, founder of German travel publishing company Reise Know-How, decided to launch a map series. Years of travelling had taught him one thing: Keep it practical.

And that's what world mapping project maps are all about: providing concise and up-to-date information for travellers and professional users everywhere. Using a wide range of sources we pioneered high quality cartography for many of the regions now covered by our 190+ maps.
