Valencia, 2015-03-05 Students of Color and the Achievement Gap is a comprehensive landmark analysis of an incontrovertible racialized reality in U S K 12 public education the relentless achievement gap between low socioeconomic students of color and their economically advantaged White counterparts Award winning author and scholar Richard Valencia provides an authoritative and systemic treatment of the achievement gap focusing on Black and Latino Latina students He examines the societal and educational factors that help to create and maintain the achievement gap by drawing from critical race theory an asset based perspective and a systemic inequality approach By showing how racialized opportunity structures in society and schools ultimately result in racialized patterns of academic achievement in schools Valencia shows how the various indicators of the achievement gap are actually symptoms of the societal and school quality gaps Following each of these concerns Valencia provides a number of reform suggestions that can lead to systemic transformations of K 12 education Students of Color and the Achievement Gap makes a persuasive and well documented case that school success for students of color and the empowerment of their parents can only be fully understood and realized

when contextualized within broader political economic and cultural frameworks The Absurdity of Compromise - The Art of Resolving Conflict so Everyone Wins Donald Grady II, PhD, 2019-01-02 People think compromise is a good thing Can anything be good that pushes everyone involved to sacrifice something they value Compromise has long been accepted as the preferred way to resolve our differences We do it at work as entrepreneurs to settle squabbles between spouses or when a mother battles a teen No matter the problem we go for the compromise You ever wonder why In The Absurdity of Compromise Donald Grady examines the drawbacks and challenges of conflict and explodes the myth that compromise is the win win it s proclaimed to be Avoid the pitfalls of talking past other people Learn to listen intelligently and empathetically understand the perspective of others Stop fighting and compromising to everyone s mutual dissatisfaction Want better results but haven t quite figured out how to get there This is the book for you Today s practices often present antagonists with one sided solutions leaving each feeling like losers In Don Grady s peace building schemata everyone comes away a winner I recommend this lively book to anyone enmeshed in the field of conflict resolution foreign or domestic Robert W Farrand U S Ambassador and Deputy High Representative Bosnia Heregovina 1997 2000 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Winning the Presidency 2008 William J. Crotty, 2015-11-17 The presidential election of 2008 is unique in a history of memorable campaigns for the highest office in the U S Never before has an African American captured the nomination of a major political party Never before have the Republicans nominated a woman for vice president Never before has a woman come so close to capturing the nomination of a major party And with at once one of the oldest and youngest candidates contending for the office never before has the campaign been stretched over such a range of voters and issues Add to that the multiple threats to the U S economy and the longest war the country has ever waged and the electoral context is set This book is the first to describe and assess these monumental developments with original analysis by an all star cast of contributors No other book captures both the range and depth of this one in its early look at the meaning of the most significant election in years one with unprecedented institutional constitutional and policy consequences for all of us The Winning Investment Habits of Warren Buffett & George Soros Mark Tier, 2013-09-17 Warren Buffett Carl Icahn and George Soros all started with nothing and made billion dollar fortunes solely by investing But their investment strategies are so widely divergent what could they possibly have in common As Mark Tier demonstrates in this insightful book the secrets that made Buffet Icahn and Soros the world s three richest investors are the same mental habits and strategies they all practice religiously However these are mental habits and strategies that fly in the face of Wall Street s conventional mindset

For example Buffett Icahn and Soros do not diversify When they buy they buy as much as they can They re not focused on the profits they expect to make Going in they re not investing for the money at all They don t believe that big profits involve big risks In fact they re far more focused on not losing money than making it Wall Street research reports They never read them They re not interested in what other people think Indeed Buffett says he only reads analyst reports when he needs a laugh In The Winning Investment Habits of Warren Buffett George Soros you can discover how the mental habits that guided your last investment decision stack up against those of Buffett Icahn and Soros Then learn exactly how you can apply the wealth building secrets of the world s richest investors to transform your own investment results International Law and Religion Martti Koskenniemi,Mónica García-Salmones Rovira,Paolo Amorosa,2017 This collective volume brings together contributions by academics in various fields of law and the humanities in order to tackle the complex interactions between international law and religion The originality and the variety of approaches makes this book a must have for academics planning to approach the topic in the future Philosophical Dimensions of Public Policy Verna V. Gehring,William Arthur Galston, At the mid point of the twentieth century many philosophers in the English speaking world regarded political and moral philosophy as all but moribund Thinkers influenced by logical positivism believe that ethical statements are merely disguised expressions of individual emotion lacking propositional force or that the conditions for the validation of ethical statements could not be specified or that their content however humanly meaningful is inexpressible Philosophical Dimensions of Public Policy presents thirty four articles written by research scholars numerous fields philosophy political theory medicine law biology economics ecology and sociology treating a broad range of topics in practical philosophy The Institute for Philosophy and Public Affairs has been home for these ideas pioneering a distinctive method of conducting inquiry into the moral dimensions of public life and contributing to public discussion and deliberation Members of the Institute reject the idea that public philosophy means reaching into the philosopher s tool kit and applying prefabricated theories to particular problems They set in motion a dialogue between the distinctive moral features of practical problems and the more general moral theories or considerations that seem most likely to elucidate these problems The volume is divided into five areas Politics Civic Life and Moral Education Diversity Identity and Equal Opportunity Human Rights Development Ethics and International Justice Biotechnology Genetic Research and Health Policy and Natural Environment Human Communities Philosophical Dimensions of Public Policy presents empirical data and philosophical arguments with the intention of informing public policy and public deliberation Scholars as well as graduate and undergraduate students are certain to find it useful to their research work Verna V Gehring is editor at the Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy at the School of Public Affairs University of Maryland She serves as editor of Philosophy Public Policy Quarterly reviewer of ethics manuscripts for Oxford University Press and moderator for the Aspen Institute William A Galston is director at the Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy at the School of Public Affairs University of Maryland He is a political theorist who
