

The Legalization of Same-Sex Marriage in the Philippines

Same-sex marriage is the practice of marrying someone of the same sex. It is a marriage between two women or two men under the law. Most countries in the world have already legalized same-sex marriage, but not all. The Philippines is one of the countries that have yet to legalize same-sex marriage in the country. There was international research on how many people are part of the LGBTQ+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Gender-nonconforming) community in the country. There were 17 million Filipinos who are part of the LGBTQ+ community in the country. This shows the approximate size of people who are part of the LGBTQ+ in the country. Then, the question came up: should we allow the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the Philippines? There was a survey conducted by the Social Weather Stations in that year if Filipinos are in favor of legalizing same-sex marriage. The majority of the survey showed that 60% of Filipinos are against the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the Philippines. 30% are in favor of legalizing it and 10% of the Filipinos have not decided whether they agree or disagree on the matter. This indicates that the acceptance rate of the subject in the Philippines cannot even be considered as half given how despite the Philippines being a "gay-friendly country" (Gonzalez, 2016). The president of the Philippines, Mr. Rodrigo Duterte, also opposed the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the country that this is not an option and same-sex marriage is not applicable here in the Philippines because we are Catholic (Gonzalez, 2017). Regardless, same-sex marriage should be legalized in the Philippines to strengthen the fundamental rights of equality and free freedom of belief and religion.

Same-sex marriage for the LGBTQ+ community has been categorized as a matter of human rights. This has sparked a long controversy leading to the dividing of citizens, especially the church. Same-sex marriage in the Philippines remains a sensitive topic because of issues like religious fundamentalism, culture, society, where same-sex marriage is considered as a way of morality and love of Filipino citizens who practice particular religious beliefs, gay, transsexual, transgender, and other who opposed to religious freedom to citizens equal rights under the law (Gonzalez, 2016). Gonzalez et al., 2016. This survey is an act of representation of religious freedom as defined in the document religion and the gay against the freedom of choice and freedom of religious in the Philippines of Gonzalez et al., 2016. This shows that the Philippines' religious community often is perceived not as protecting, support and respecting citizens for a fundamental commitment to
