Sammy Baloji Memoire Kolwezi Africalia:

The Geometries of Afro Asia Joan Kee, 2023-04-18 How do we embark on a history of art that proceeds from the assumption of a global majority Taking as a rhetorical departure the construct of Afro Asia which doubles as both an ontological reference and an epistemological intervention this book centers the worlds Black and Asian artists initiate through their work Afro Asia breaks down delineated time into points trajectories angles magnitudes and relative positions so that temporality and chronology figure primarily as questions of geometry it asks if and how we can be something other than what biology politics culture and economics tells us we are or must become Spanning North America Europe Asia and Africa this book challenges the institutionalization of contemporary art as a global enterprise increasingly governed by the judgments of a self selecting minority

Traumatisme et mémoire culturelle Silke Segler-Meißner, Isabella von Treskow, 2023-12-04 In the 20th century and beyond world wars independence and decolonization conflicts the Holocaust exile migration terrorism and other forms of collective violence trigger traumas that are mediated by text and image commemorative rites music the press museums The notion of trauma itself evolves with these events The analysis of these processes and their mediatization is preceded by an introduction that sets out the conceptual framework of the volume The chapters present the current state of research and offer original perspectives on the relationship between trauma and cultural memory

Mémoire : Kolwezi Sammy Baloji, 2014 In southern Katanga one of the richest regions in Africa and the economic heart of Congo cities originated around copper and cobalt mines The relationship between the mining industry and the population could almost resemble that between parent and child For the past ten years Sammy Baloji has been capturing the memories hopes and imaginings of these children of the mines The historical perspective in the Memoire series boldly invites the oppressed of yesterday to engage in dialogue with the ruins of today Far from presenting an impasse it invites us to rethink society as if to exorcise its demons allowing the dead to find peace so they haunt us no more The optimism inherent in this process comes out even more clearly in Kolwezi which presents the image of a ghost town and workers who try all they can to reclaim their own wealth their dreams of comfort and most of all their want for dignity Text in English French Dutch and German
