Judith Tebbutt,2013-07-01 This is the story of how over a period of one hundred and ninety two days I was torn away from the life I knew and loved and dragged down to the depths of despair of how I endured enforced isolation and near starvation at the hands of Somali pirates and of how I made a choice to survive by any and all means that I could muster In September 2011 Judith Tebbutt and her husband David set out on an adventurous holiday to Kenya A couple for thirty three years they had first met in Zambia Africa had played a major part in their life together After a joyous week on safari in the Masai Mara they flew on to a beach resort forty kilometres south of Somalia And there in the early hours of 11 September tragedy struck them Judith was torn away from David by a band of armed pirates dragged over sea and land to a village in the arid heart of lawless Somalia and there held hostage in a squalid room a ransom on her head There too she learned the terrible truth that the responsibility of securing her release now rested with her son Ollie But though she was isolated intimidated and near starved Judith resolved to survive walking endless circuits of her nine foot prison trying to make her captors see her as a human being keeping her faith at all times in Ollie Powerful moving and at times quite devastating this is Judith Tebbutt s story in her own words It is a memoir of the life she shared with her beloved husband an unflinching account of the ordeal that overturned her world and a testament to the inner resilience and familial love that sustained her through captivity There is nothing so bad in life as to have no hope to believe you have been defeated to give in to that Now that I found myself in confinement four thousand miles from home under a hostile sky I would not accept that fate for myself Catalogue of the American Library of the Late Mr. George Brinley of Hartford, Conn George Brinley,1897 Survivors Sharyl
