Transforming Justice Responses to Non-Recent Institutional Abuses Anne-Marie McAlinden, Marie Keenan, James Gallen, 2025-03-20

Over the last few decades the issue of historical non recent institutional abuses has resonated in a range of Western states and churches. Despite the recent proliferation of justice responses to such abuses including prosecutions and civil litigation inquiries redress and apologies it is a subject which is insufficiently understood in the literature. Set against the complexities of the legal historical cultural and political realities of addressing non recent institutional abuses Transforming Justice Responses to Non Recent Institutional Abuses critically examines these justice responses across Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland. Bringing together the voices of victim survivors of non recent institutional abuses with legal actors academics media professionals and church and state actors on their experiences of justice processes this book reframes discourses on accountability and responsibility and considers how to improve justice processes at the level of praxis and increase engagement between victim survivors and institutional actors. Drawing on interdisciplinary literature related to restorative transitional and transformative justice and analysis of primary research the book advances analysis of the role of innovative justice in this space and a new approach to justice which bridges the accountability gap between seeking and achieving justice for non recent institutional abuses while improving outcomes for victims and survivors.
