Microfinance Through Self Help Group (Shg) Bank Linkage Programme An Impact Assessment Veenapani, Women, Motherhood and Living with HIV/AIDS Pranee Liamputtong, 2013-03-12 There are about 34 million people worldwide living with HIV AIDS Half are women There has been a dramatic global increase in the rates of women living with HIV AIDS Among young women especially in developing countries infection rates are rapidly increasing Many of these women are also mothers with young infants When a woman is labeled as having HIV she is treated with suspicion and her morality is being questioned Previous research has suggested that women living with HIV AIDS can be affected by delay in diagnosis inferior access to health care services internalized stigma and a poor utilization of health services This makes it extremely difficult for women to take care of their own health needs Women are also reluctant to disclose their HIV positive status as they fear this may result in physical feelings of shame social ostracism violence or expulsion from home Women living with HIV AIDS who are also mothers carry a particularly heavy burden of being HIV infected This unique book attempts to put together results from empirical research and focuses on issues relevant to women motherhood and living with HIV AIDS which have occurred to individual women in different parts of the globe The book comprises chapters written by researchers who carry out their projects in different parts of the world and each chapter contains empirical information based on real life situations This can be used as evidence for health care providers to implement socially and culturally appropriate services to assist individuals and groups who are living with HIV AIDS in many societies The book is of interest to scholars and students in the domains of anthropology sociology social work nursing public health medicine and health professionals who have a specific interest in issues concerning women who are mothers and living with HIV AIDS from cross cultural perspective Vietnamese Health Care System in Change Kerstin Priwitz, 2003-08-01 Within the last twenty years a large scale bottom up privatization has taken place in Vietnam changing and dismantling the public health care system This process has led to severe tensions inherent in the transitional society of Vietnam between equity and access to health care support especially for the poor elderly migrants and ethnic minorities on the one hand and its efficiency on the other hand The book traces the reform efforts to modernize the health care system by the Communist Party of Vietnam and the Vietnamese government The author bases her findings on little known primary literature and interviews with key stakeholders of the policy network involved in the reform of the health care system thereby painting an authentic atmospheric picture of the profound changes in the health care system in Vietnam Spirituality, Culture, and Development Subhabrata Dutta, Srilatha Juvva, Khadija Khaja, Chathapuram S. Ramanathan, 2016-10-07 This book explores culture development and spirituality from the perspective of social work This framework serves as foundation and guides analytical deliberation through the use of case studies from around the world With emerging trends in development synchronistic synthesis between the inner self and interventions it is anticipated to contribute to advancing well being of all people The book reflects global experiences from both the social work professions and development practitioner s perspectives as it pertains to economic and social development The book serves as a guide to those who want to better understand and incorporate spirituality into successful social work interventions practice and research It examines social development in the daily lives of children and families by looking at larger national and international phenomenon that can affect the well being of communities The book further discusses natural disasters poverty war migration human trafficking war violence and other factors with suggestions of innovative global interventions that have been utilized to assist diverse marginalized groups and communities Handbook of Minority Aging Tamara A. Baker, Keith E. Whitfield, 2014 The array of topics covered is amazing making this book a valuable significant resource for many disciplines This multidisciplinary review of the literature on minority aging presents the scholarship related to public health and social behavioral and biological concerns of aged minorities like no other publication Graduate students will certainly be well served by this book as would faculty teaching aging at both undergraduate and graduate levels Highly recommended Choice Current Reviews for Academic Libraries while practitioners of gerontology family medicine and any professional involved in the care of the elderly will find some practical guidance in the second part of the book it will really earn a place on the bookshelf of anyone and everyone with an interest in US sociology and the development of public policy for the elderly With the general aging of the population and the book s accentuation of current issues this outstanding review will become an indispensable tool Healthy Aging Research This text provides up to date multidisciplinary and comprehensive information about aging among diverse racial and ethnic populations in the United States It is the only book to focus on paramount public health issues as they relate to older minority Americans and addresses social behavioral and biological concerns for this population The text distills the most important advances in the science of minority aging and incorporates the evidence of scholars in gerontology anthropology psychology public health sociology social work biology medicine and nursing Additionally the book incorporates the work of both established and emerging scholars to provide the broadest possible knowledge base on the needs of and concerns for this rapidly growing population Chapters focus on subject areas that are recognized as being critical in understanding the well being of minority elders These include sociology Medicare SES work and retirement social networks context neighborhood ethnography gender demographics psychology cognition stress mental health personality sexuality religion neuroscience discrimination medicine nursing public health mortality and morbidity disability health disparities long term care genetics dietary issues health interventions physical functioning social work caregiving housing social services end of life care and many other topics The book focuses on the needs of four major ethnic groups Asian Pacific Islander Hispanic Latino African American and Native American Key Features Provides current comprehensive information about minority aging through a multidisciplinary lens Integrates information from scholars in gerontology anthropology psychology public health sociology social work biology medicine and nursing Emphasizes the principal public health issues concerning minority elders Offers one stop shopping regarding the development of a substantial knowledge base about minority aging Includes recent progressive research pertaining to the social cultural psychological and health needs of elderly minority adults in the US

Gender and Social Protection in the Developing World Rebecca Holmes,Nicola Jones,2013-03-14 Millions of pounds of international development funds are invested annually in social protection programmes to tackle poverty Poverty is perpetuated by risk and vulnerability much of which is gendered Despite this little attention has been paid to gender sensitive policy and programme design and implementation Gender and Social Protection in the Developing World introduces a much needed gender lens to these debates Drawing on empirical evidence from poor households and communities in Africa Asia and Latin America the book provides rich insight into the effects of a range of social protection instruments It concludes that with relatively simple changes to design and with investment in implementation capacity social protection can contribute to transforming gender relations at the individual intrahousehold and community levels With a foreword by Stephen
