Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed,Marcina Singh,2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa s evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book s critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work Education in Southern Africa Clive Harber,2013-09-12 Education in Southern Africa is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in the region With chapters written by an international team of leading regional education experts the book explores the education systems of each country in the region With chapters covering Botswana Lesotho Madagascar Mozambique Namibia South Africa Swaziland and Zimbabwe the book critically examines the development of education provision in each country as well as local and global contexts Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole and guides to available online datasets this handbook will be an essential reference for researchers scholars international agencies and policy makers at all levels Accessing Post-School Studies Venicia McGhie & Madge du Preez,2017-12-01 Accessing Post School Studies A student's GPS to successful learning makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and S l j The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Prof Victor N Teise Sol Plaatje University Kimberley South Africa My Money Gerald Mwandambira,2024-06-07 Money is a tool that we can all master You choose to either be a Money Slave or a Money Master My Money written by Gerald Mwandambira is a practical easy to read personal finance book A guide that will help many ordinary people begin to create wealth and not fear the subject of personal financial planning A treasure trove of useful advice and tips this book is essential reading to gain a basic understanding of money mechanics A guide to help you find your confidence and see money as it really is a tool that anyone can use With a chapter dedicated to almost every financial situation we face in our lives My Money will become your go to book that will help you unlock your financial potential and gain control of your financial affairs You too have the potential to become a Money Master Self-directed learning research: An imperative for transforming the educational landscape Elsa Mentz, Thabisile Buthelezi, Josef de Beer, Adri du Toit, Aubrey Golightly, Sarah Gravett, Marietjie Havenga, Anita Lubbe, Judah P. Makonye, Neal Petersen, Paulinah Phahamane, Jessica Pool, H.J. (Hennie) Steyn, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, Charl Wolhuter, 2016-12-31 This book will benefit specialists in the field of the education sciences It represents significant progress in knowledge production Self directed learning has become increasingly important not only for education in South Africa but also for education sciences in the international arena This is a result of the changing education landscape caused by the demands of the 21st century as well as the rapid change in knowledge production Learners should be equipped with skills to take responsibility for their own learning New innovative strategies should be incorporated into teaching and learning in order to meet the changing demands in education Traditional teacher centred practices are still the norm in most South African schools and higher education institutions and do not adequately prepare students for lifelong learning in the 21st century The content focuses on the theory behind self directed learning explores strategies such as cooperative learning problembased learning case based teaching and large group teaching that enhance self directed learning and the use of blended learning in a self directed learning environment The book demonstrates how self directed learning can be enhanced in mathematics computer science and life science education and through the use of student tutors for geography Digital technology could for example also be used in innovative ways for education in isiZulu folk poetry The findings are based on original empirical research and a sound theoretical conceptual framework In an environment of rapidly changing knowledge production this book responds to the challenge of how to equip learners with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning The book presents innovative teaching and learning strategies for meeting the changing demands in education Group activities the responsibilities of learners and the obstacles that hinder their learning are analysed and the way in which educators can support them is discussed Educational values such as mutual trust are discussed and self directed assessment is explored This is a timely collective work authored by experts who subscribe to the approach of self directed learning Educators should discover new teaching and learning strategies and value the integration of self directed learning in the classroom

OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2020 OECD,2020-07-31 The COVID 19 outbreak is worsening an already fragile economic outlook Since 2013 growth has been modest and unemployment has been rising Policy uncertainty has been the main driver of low confidence and subdued investment Following a sharp fiscal deterioration in recent years the crisis also heightened debt sustainability challenges

Development Management of Transforming Economies Fabiana Sciarelli,Azzurra Rinaldi,2016-12-14 This insightful book offers a new and innovative tool in the study of development The authors propose The Overall Development Model which provides a strategy for long term sustainable and adaptable development for countries around the globe Starting with a comprehensive study into what development is and how it is achieved Development Management of Transforming Economies critically analyzes current development schemes within transforming economies and examines their various actors both international and local public and private It examines the implementation of health education and economic strategies of countries in Africa and Asia that have either undergone a development process experienced slow but steady progress or are just beginning to pursue a development strategy In considering human development as a whole the authors assert a new method of development that includes the developing population and highlights the need for countries to define their own unique development process
