1. Introduction

The aim of this research guide is to give an introduction to some of the main debates regarding internal displacement. Although the guide concentrates on conflict induced internal displacement, causes of internal displacement are extremely complex and the displacement of populations due to environmental change, natural disasters, and development projects is often interlinked with and simultaneous to conflicts causing the forced movement of people (Banerjee et al. 2005, Birkeland 2003a,b, Cernea and McDowell 2000, Haug 2003, Lund 2003, Muggah 2003, Qadem 2005).

It is easy when discussing internal displacement to fall into an instrumental language and deal only with concepts, definitions and categories. This research guide aims to summarise the challenge of internal displacement at a policy level, but also to address its social consequences and explore the experiences of many internally displaced persons (IDPs) of physical dislocation, separation from everyday practices and familiar environments, social disruption and material dispossession.

Research Guide On Internal Displacement Cathrine Brun:

Afrodescendant Resistance to Deracination in Colombia Aurora Vergara-Figueroa, 2017-10-26 This book provides a socio historical analysis of the 2002 massacre at Bellavista Bojay Choc Colombia The author examines how the concepts of forced displacement and migration could be formulas for historical erasure These concepts are used to name populations such as the survivors of this massacre and are limited in their ability to contribute to the demands for reparation of the affected populations Instead based on an ethnographic study of the pain and suffering generated in the survivors the book proposes the concept of deracination as a tool to study land dispossession It captures both the complex local specificities the global linkages of this phenomenon and the strategies of resistance used by the people of this community to channel what seems as an impossible mourning

Women Moving Forward Volume Two Raúl Fernández-Calienes, 2010-02-19 Drs Judith Bachay and Ra l Fern ndez Calienes present us with another outstanding volume of narratives that provide a much needed forum to share stories of the global movement of women towards empowerment and the securing of their human rights Each of the twenty three chapters authors share different aspects of the issues and challenges women have or will encounter as they move forward The diversity of the stories reflects the diversity of the authors As examples Ariela Agos n discusses the progress Chile has made in recent years towards providing women with a voice Katariina Juliao provides the reader with a comparison between the United States and Finland as to the evolution of women s rights using examples from politics education and the workplace Many of the authors explore the new difficulties and prejudices faced by women and or their families who have migrated to foreign countries to escape the oppressive conditions in their homelands Others reveal to the reader through first person narratives the intrapersonal conflicts experienced by those who are moving forward but fear the loss of their heritage Women Moving Forward Volume 2 delivers what the editors promise a scholarly forum for the development of an intersectional perspective that extends our awareness of how women are moving beyond victimhood This is a book that both inspires and challenges the reader Nancy Borkowski D B A C P A Associate Professor and Dean of Academic Affairs South University West Palm Beach Florida Women Moving Forward Volume 2 is a cornucopia of issues and ideas offered by diverse voices that lay the ground work for new ways of thinking and meaning making Judith Barr Bachay and Ra l Fern ndez Calienes are opening up spaces for an intersectional analysis that includes the unique experience of women This is a must read for social workers academics and human rights activists who want to learn about and from women who are claiming their place in every aspect of the world arena I can t wait to meet and learn from the authors of Volume 3 Carol Heinisch M A M S W Social Worker Jefferson County Public Defender s Office Denver Colorado This is a weaving of stories that speaks centrally to hope fortitude resilience identity and compassion amongst women Within these writings is a central theme of finding meaning in adversity promoting advocacy and justice and fostering dignity in the human community through access and opportunity Robert Coles posits what we need is a respect for narrative as everyone s rock bottom capacity but also as a universal gift to be shared with others These writings are a validation of our experiences and journeys to overcome struggles as women Yet narrative alone is not enough as many of us know who have taken on these challenges of transforming communities and systems Change occurs through the actions and resolve of individuals who courageously take on these issues Assuredly in this text you ll find this scale of synergistic energy as well L Sunny Hansen uses a poignant metaphor that we are all quilters on this planet seeking to understand value and connect with each other in a sustainable future free from violence Identifying where you fit into this quilt is in part what the authors writing here want you to examine Urging you into identifying the essential role you might play in sewing together a better future for all humanity Heather Zeng Ph D Human Resource Development Consultant Career Counselor Fremont California Significantly real world unrelenting and ultra compelling are but a few defining indicators to describe these writings This discriminating collection expresses the decisive dimensions that embody grassroots to global settings From the evidenced shared aims of humanity reflected in the versatile matter of fact life experiences to the clearly conveyed urgent need for immediate involvement these treatises are foundational to halting and de fragmenting the variant layers of widespread colonial and post colonial systems of injustice To arrest this worldwide convention of minority majority dissent cultural hegemony warfare gendered suffrage and the socio economic politics against civilization will require a revolution of sorts This integral text establishes a wide ranging view towards that negotiation and resolve and further presents a medium of critical reasoning to execute social reconstruction to dismantle the inequality that wrongly saturates macro to micro communities No matter what societal position validates your being this profound volume is a must read Arnold Munroe Ed D Visiting Assistant Professor Educational Studies Department University of Central Florida Orlando Florida This book illustrates the profoundly personal quest of women moving forward despite the burden of geopolitical place structural and cultural constraints economic hardship and gender The whole balances a celebration of localized and personalized advancements with a portrait of daily struggles for justice Women write of finding strength in their families ethnicities culture and spiritual beliefs while confronting unequal footing in personal and professional spaces and private and public places This work offers inspiration as well as critical assessments of what women have endured what they are enduring and for what they are striving Patricia Widener Ph D Assistant Professor Department of Sociology Florida Atlantic University Davie Florida This uplifting book engages with the dilemmas and joys facing all those women who at some time in their lives have had to cross borders of one sort or another The United States is the point of arrival for most contributors and their earlier experiences as immigrant refugee or displaced person as educational or health migrant or as seeker after freedom and opportunity emerge vividly from every page The rich cultural diversity of this volume extends to Latin America Jamaica Palestine Africa and Finland with a series of thought provoking tales of sorrow hope and particularly of faith Interdisciplinary contributions include fields as diverse as traumatic exposure second language acquisition and human trafficking Women Moving Forward provides an essential source not only an inspiration to those women still forced to follow similar paths but a necessary stimulant to evoking understanding sympathy and support from those whose way has been less traumatic It will be rewarding reading for all Brenda Bolton University of London London England U K

Legacies of Forced Removals in South Africa Efua Tembisa Prah,2025-10-07 This book contributes to an international literature on children and childhood studies by providing a variety of lenses through which we can further explore children s reflections about the worlds they inhabit Through documentation of the reflections of life in a temporary relocation camp of six children the research findings show the slippages in governance in post apartheid South Africa revealing however determining structures of oppression shaped by histories of violence remain as hauntings in the lived experience of those on the margins of the state In this way the book offers testament to the lasting impact apartheid has left on South Africa s populations The stories of these children offer testament to a fluidity of identifications and repressions that criss cross notions of what it is to be a citizen a child youth or adult in sites of frequent forced mobility Research Handbook on Asylum and Refugee Policy Jane Freedman,Glenda Santana de Andrade,2024-09-06 Providing a comprehensive multi disciplinary analysis of key issues in the field this topical Research Handbook explores asylum and migration policy in a global context Chapters consider national regional and international responses to refugees and forced migration examining the evolution of asylum and refugee policies and why gaps remain in protection Handbook on Forced Migration Karen Jacobsen,Nassim Majidi,2023-10-06 Forced migration in the 21st century is inextricably linked to three global developments climate change rapid urbanization and the lack of solutions faced by millions of forcibly displaced people By adding a focus on the disciplines of history and philosophy this erudite Handbook challenges narratives on forced migration and explains these contemporary challenges in a unique light

Alternative Development Cathrine Brun,Piers Blaikie,2016-03-23 This book brings together a collection of essays that discuss alternative development and its relevance for local global processes of marginalization and change in the Global South Alternative development questions who the producers of development knowledges and practices are and aims at decentring development and geographical knowledge from the Anglo American centre and the Global North It involves resistance to dominant political economic processes in order to further the possibilities for non exploitative and just forms of development By discussing how to unravel marginalization and voice change through alternative methods actors and concepts the book provides useful guidance on understanding the relationship between theory and practice The main strength of the book is that it calls for a central role for alternative development in the current development discourse most notably related to justice rights globalization forced migration conflict and climate change The book provides new ways of engaging with alternative development thinking and making development alternatives relevant

Displacement Silvia Pasquetti,Romola Sanyal,2020-06-24 As an unprecedented number of people are displaced around the world scholars continue to strive to make sense of what appear to be a series of constantly unfolding crises Drawing on research in a range of regions from Latin America to Europe sub Saharan Africa

North America post Soviet regions and South and South East Asia Displacement offers an interdisciplinary and transnational approach to thinking about structures spaces and lived experiences of displacement The contributors engage in a historical transnational interdisciplinary dialogue to offer different ways of theorizing about refugees internally displaced persons stateless people and others that have been forcibly displaced Representing a collective effort by sociologists geographers anthropologists political scientists historians and migration studies scholars this volume develops new cross regional conversations and theoretically innovative vocabularies in the work on forced displacement It also draws forced displacement together with other contemporary issues across different disciplines such as urbanisation race and imperialism

The Tsunami of 2004 in Sri Lanka Ragnhild Lund, Piers Blaikie, 2013-10-18 This book is based on empirical research in Sri Lanka conducted after the catastrophic tsunami which hit the country in December 2004 The aims of the research have been to develop new knowledge on post crisis reconstruction and recovery work on how to bridge the knowledge gap between researchers and practitioners as well as trying to use past research experiences from Sri Lanka to learn about the present day situation The chapters use a common analytical frame related to the policy narratives of post tsunami recovery in the shadow of war and deal with housing reconstruction livelihoods internally displaced humanitarian interventions and protracted conflicts The authors represent various social scientific fields and they have experience from different geographical areas of Sri Lanka This book was published as a special issue of Norsk Geografisk Tidsskrift

Spatial Violence Andrew Herscher, Anooradha Siddiqi, 2018-02-02 This book poses spatial violence as a constitutive dimension of architecture and its epistemologies as well as a method for theoretical and historical inquiry intrinsic to architecture and thereby offers an alternative to predominant readings of spatial violence as a topic event fact or other empirical form that may be illustrated by architecture Exploring histories of and through architecture at sites across the globe the chapters in the book blur the purportedly distinctive borders between war and peace framing violence as a form of social political and economic order rather than its exceptional interruption Regarding space and violence as co constitutive the book's collected essays critique modernization and capitalist accumulation as naturalized modes for the extraction of violence from everyday life Focusing on the mediation of violence through architectural registers of construction destruction design use representation theory and history the book suggests that violence is not only something inflicted upon architecture but also something that architecture inflicts In keeping with Walter Benjamin's formulation that there is no document of civilization that is not also a document of barbarism the book offers spatial violence as another name for architecture itself This book was previously published as a special issue of Architectural Theory Review

Refugia Robin Cohen, Nicholas Van Hear, 2019-12-06 This is an unusual book Combining social science fiction utopianism pragmatism sober analysis and innovative social theory the authors address one of the biggest dilemmas of our age how to solve the problems arising from mass displacement As early versions of the solution proposed by Robin Cohen and Nicholas Van Hear filtered out their vision of a new networked transnational archipelago called Refugia was immediately denounced or met with scepticism by established refugee scholars Others were more intrigued more open minded or perhaps just holding their fire until this book was finally published As it at least has the virtue of originality why not judge the proposal for yourself Read it and craft your own critique The authors have initiated an openly pro refugee vision that all can help to shape Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to scholars students practitioners and an informed public ready to engage with this pressing issue
