The Europeanization of Turkish Public Policies Aylin Güney,Ali Tekin,2015-09-16 Turkey s candidacy for membership of the European Union has had mixed effects on its public policies The initial degree of cohesion between EU and Turkish national policies practices and institutions has varied by the policy field in question leading to a complex amalgam of fit and misfit between the two actors Their interaction in different policy areas has had direct influence both on Turkey s accession to the EU and its own national reform process With accession negotiations stalled and Turkey s relationship with the EU increasingly tenuous it is vital to take stock of the extent to which Turkey and the EU are aligned in key policy areas The Europeanization of Turkish Public Policies A Scorecard is the first comprehensive work focusing on the impact of the EU accession process upon Turkey's public policies between 1999 and 2014. Complementing the authors' earlier volume Europeanization of Turkey: Polity and Politics, it brings together leading specialists to provide key analyses of the impact of Europeanization on specific areas of Turkey's public policy. Each chapter applies a core analytical framework to examine a separate policy field, resulting in a consistent and comprehensive volume on Turkey-EU relations. With its focused structure and extensive coverage, concluding with a scorecard enabling informed assessment of the impact of Europeanization on Turkey's public policy areas, this book provides a one-stop resource for scholars and students alike. A timely and informed assessment of the dynamics and outcome of the Europeanization of an EU candidate country's major public policy areas, this book represents an essential resource for those interested in EU-Turkey relations, the effects of Europeanization on Turkey and Turkish politics.

Unfolding History, Evolving Identity Manying Ip, 2003. An overview of the history and experience of Chinese in New Zealand up to the present day. Historical topics range from the Chinese on the goldfields to a study of Wellington's Chinatown, to studies of settler families; later chapters study aspects of recent Chinese immigration such as transnationalism and the underemployment of skilled people; a final section discusses political strategies adopted by the Chinese, including an analysis of the search for an apology for the wrongs inflicted by the historical poll tax.

Debates on U.S. Immigration Judith Gans, Elaine M. Replogle, Daniel J. Tichenor, 2012-10-17. This volume uses introductory essays followed by point-counterpoint articles to explore prominent and perennially important debates, providing readers with views on multiple sides of the complex issue of US immigration.

Handbook on Migration and Security Philippe Bourbeau, 2017-04-28. This Handbook provides a state-of-the-art analysis of the critically important links between migration and security in a globalising world and presents original contributions suggesting innovative and emerging frontiers in the study of the securitization of migration. Experts from different fields reflect on their respective conceptualisations of the migration security nexus and consider how an interdisciplinary and multifaceted dialogue can stimulate and enrich our understanding of the securitisation of migration in the contemporary world.

Developing European Internal Security Policy Christian Kaunert, Sarah Léonard, 2014-06-03. The European Union (EU) is making strong inroads into areas of security traditionally reserved to states, especially into internal security or Justice and Home Affairs. The Area of Freedom, Security and Justice (AFSJ), as it has been renamed in the Amsterdam Treaty, has seen significant policy developments since the late 1990s. In fact, there has been no other example of a policy-making area making its way so quickly and comprehensively to the centre of the treaties and to the top of the EU's policy-making agenda. After major treaty revisions in Maastricht, Amsterdam, Nice, and finally the Lisbon Treaty, which entered into force on 1 December 2009, as well as an increased political impetus through the European Council Summits in Tampere (1999), the Hague (2004), and Stockholm (2009), the area appears as one of the most promising policy fields for integration in the EU in the foreseeable future This process has deepened even more significantly after the terrorist attacks on 11 September 2001 in the United States on 11 March 2004 in Madrid and on 7 July 2005 in London This book is the first to analyse these hugely topical developments in European internal security at both the treaty and policy levels as well as its implementation at the national level from various disciplinary perspectives political science law criminology etc This book was published as a special edition of European Security
