LANGUAGE, AUTONOMY, AND THE CONSTITUTION: RE-EXAMINING THE THREE-LANGUAGE FORMULA IN A FEDERAL INDIA

BY NIKSHITHA R
RAKSHITHA R

Abstract:

This paper critically examines the Three-Language Formula (TLF) in India, a policy introduced in the 1968 National Education Policy and reiterated in the 2020 revision, aimed at promoting multilingualism, national integration, and linguistic diversity among school students. While the formula envisions the study of two native Indian languages alongside English, its implementation has sparked widespread resistance, especially in non-Hindi-speaking states such as Tamil Nadu and Karnataka. Through a historical lens, the paper explores Tamil Nadu's long-standing opposition to the imposition of Hindi and Karnataka's evolving stance amid regional language activism. The study delves into the constitutional dimensions of the TLF, highlighting tensions with Articles 343, 345, 347, 282, and 29, and its perceived conflict with the spirit of the Eighth Schedule. The conditional allocation of educational funds under central schemes like Samagra Shiksha Abhiyan further illustrates the friction between centralized education reforms and states' rights to linguistic and educational autonomy. The paper underscores the need for a more flexible, context-sensitive approach to language policy that respects India's federal structure and rich linguistic heritage while promoting national cohesion without coercion.

Introduction:

The Three-Language Formula, introduced in the National Education Policy (NEP) of 1968 and reaffirmed in NEP 2020, aims to promote multilingualism and national integration by encouraging students to learn three languages: their mother tongue or regional language, Hindi or another Indian language, and English. While this policy seeks to foster linguistic diversity, its implementation has raised concerns, particularly in non-Hindi-speaking states like Tamil Nadu and Karnataka. These states perceive the policy as a potential imposition of Hindi, threatening their linguistic autonomy and cultural identity. The Official Languages Act
