

SAMPLE CHICAGO PAPER (16th ed.)

Chicago papers start with a title page. The title of the paper should be 1/3 of the way down the page and centered. If there is a title and subtitle, the two should be on different lines, separated by a colon.

A Crow in the North:
Enduring the Hostilities of Indigenous Populations

John Snow
History 201: Exploration and Anthropology
Professor Taylor Lohman
September 25, 2013

About 2/3 of the way down the page should contain your name, the date, and any other information required by your instructor. Typically it will be the name and section of your class, and perhaps the name of your professor.

Me-Search and Re-Search DeMethra LaSha Bradley,Robert Nash,2011-03-01 From the Foreword Robert and DeMethra s book Me Searching and Re Search has caught my fancy in a number of ways The book title cleverly captures what SPN is all about it is about self narratives the me search part and about scholarly meaning making the re search part This eye catching title also illuminates the authors intent to turn this seemingly intimidating method of self inquiry into something very accessible and doable Their jargon free language is friendly and inviting Although they don t intend to make their many methodological tips and tools too prescriptive their practical suggestions provided in this guide book are indeed helpful and useful I believe that Robert and DeMethra have demonstrated admirable talents as effective educators by unpacking the complex method of SPN writing into bite sized steps I am fully convinced that the steps will help both novices and the experienced researcher to reach the ultimate height of producing engaging and scholarly significant SPN s The book is also fun to read The authors intersperse throughout their own SPN s pedagogical insights from their doing and teaching and real life stories in order to illustrate the methodological process challenges and triumphs
