Nuclear Data for Science and Technology K.H. Bockhoff,2012-12-06 Proceedings of the International Conference Antwerp Belgium September 6 10 1982 The Secret Lives of Anthropologists Bonnie L. Hewlett,2019-11-26 This book addresses the difficult conditions researchers may face in the field and provides lessons in how to navigate the various social political economic health and environmental challenges involved in fieldwork It also sheds important light on aspects often considered secret or taboo From anthropologists just starting out to those with over forty years in the field these researchers offer the benefit of their experience conducting research in diverse cultures around the world The contributions combine engaging personal narrative with consideration of theory and methods The volume emphasizes how being adaptable and aware of the many risks and rewards of ethnographic research can help foster success in quantitative and qualitative data collection This is a valuable resource for students of anthropological methods and those about to embark on fieldwork for the first time Digital Technologies and African Societies Julien Atchoua,Jean-Jacques Maomra Bogui,Saikou Diallo,2020-11-17 The integration and use of information and communication technologies ICT in African countries is increasingly observable in various sectors of activity banking education trade etc despite a digital divide still relevant ICT has become a major sector of the recent growth of a new informal economy in African cities Ch neu Loquay 2008 This question has been at the heart of various international meetings An overall positive and even utopian momentum is generally heard about the contribution of digital technologies to the development of African states The adoption or appropriation of digital technologies by Africans is presented in many speeches by politicians or institutions involved in the field of cooperation and international development as an important issue for the development of this continent These different considerations give rise to reflections on the following themes Social Media and Public Space in Africa Challenges of the digital economy in Africa ICT and modernization of higher education in Africa Innovation for Society Marianne Chouteau,Joelle Forest,Céline Nguyen,2020-11-03 In a context marked by unprecedented challenges the struggle against inequalities climate change etc innovation appears to be the readymade universal scapegoat Innovation for Society however suggests that we look at innovation differently by inviting us to innovate with consciousness To do this the authors introduce an approach they call Penser le Sens de l Innovation P S I or thinking about the meaning of innovation comprising a set of tools largely from the humanities and social sciences observation cartography creativity storytelling etc to lead us to this meaning By considering the question of meaning from the point of view of both direction and signification the authors rehabilitate the eminently political question of knowing which innovations we choose for which societies Seven Centuries of Lace Mrs. Maria Margaret La Primaudaye Pollen,1908 Connecting Women Valérie Schafer,Benjamin G. Thierry,2015-10-08 This important volume examines European perspectives on the historical relations that women have maintained with information and communication technologies ICTs since the telegraph Features describes how gendered networks have formed around ICT since the late 19th Century reviews the gendered issues revealed by the conflict between the actress Ms Sylviac and the French telephone administration in 1904 or by feminine blogs examines how gender representations age categories and uses of ICT interact and are mutually formed in children s magazines illuminates the participation of women in the early days of computing through a case study on the Rothamsted Statistics Department presents a comparative study of women in computing in France Finland and the UK revealing similar gender divisions within the ICT professions of these countries discusses diversity interventions and the part that history could and should play to ensure women do not take second place in specific occupational sectors Revisiting Migrant Networks Elif Keskiner,Michael Eve,Louise Ryan,2022-03-16 This open access book provides new conceptualisations on the networks of migrants and their descendants in accessing the labour market Although references to social networks are common in discussions of migration simplified ideas of co ethnic networks often obscure the reality for example confounding ties with co ethnics and strong ties This open access book addresses key questions about the role of networks in migration contexts particularly in relation to how migrants and their descendants access the labour market and develop their employment trajectories over time Rather than adopting a narrow essentializing ethnic lens the research presented in this book explores intersectional identities of class generation and gender By focusing on the kinds of capital circulating between ties including the dark side of social capital the book offers insights into power dynamics and the potentially exclusionary dimension of networks Taking a long term view acrossgenerations the research in this book shows how migrants and their descendants mobilize resources to tackle discrimination and enhance their position within particular labour markets Drawing on robust quantitative and rich qualitative data this book provides a primary source to students scholars and policy makers focusing on issues of migration social networks social mobility as well as labour market inequalities Data Requirements for Integrated Urban Water Management Tim Fletcher,Ana Deletic,2007-11-15 Integrated urban water management relies on data allowing us to analyse understand and predict the behaviour of the individual water cycle components and their interactions The concomitant monitoring of the complex of urban water system elements makes it possible to grasp the entirety of relations among the various components of the urban water c
