Vv.,2015-04-21T00:00:00+02:00 The digital age has witnessed the development of a new kind of archive immaterial living and moving largely user generated and conceived for managing a wide variety of audio visual materials besides traditional films and videos The first part of this anthology investigates the ways in which media forms like web documentaries video art and digital art web series amateur productions and also mobile films can be stored and preserved within the new digital repositories The second part focuses on archival and preservation practices of the video game This approach understands the archive not simply as a memory box but as a fully contemporary practice that locates new media objects in the present and acknowledges their changing cultural and social configurations The democratic often immaterial living mobile nature of contemporary archives forces us to question whether or not the traditional notion of the archive still has a heuristic value Or if it would be perhaps better to reject any conventional idea of archive and embrace the notion of an archive Zombie Futures in Literature, Media and Culture Simon Bacon,2024-10-31 An innovative investigation into how zombie narratives over the past ten years have been specifically leading up to a unique intersection with the world as it exists in the 2020s this book posits the undead as a vehicle to communicate humanity's pathway into and out of the ideological health and environmental pandemics of our time Exploring depictions of zombies across literature poetry comics television film and video games Simon Bacon brings together this timely intervention into how zombies enable speculation about future modes of being in a changing world and represent the fluid notion of old and new normals With each chapter moving beyond traditional readings of the undead Zombie Futures situates the zombie as an evolving cultural imaginary at the centre of discourses around how human cognition and embodiment are effected by global realities such as consumerism new technologies climate change and planetary degeneration Structured around contagious partisan ideologies ecological sickness mental health crisis and the very literal COVID 19 virus this book establishes how the zombie figure might manifest post human and post normative futures Works featured include graphic novels and comics like The West Zombies Crossed and Endzeit the South Korean series and films Kingdom Train to Busan and Peninsula The Last of Us and the Resident Evil game franchises Bollywood horror anthology Ghost Stories Joss Whedon s Serenity Cargo and literature such as The Girl with All the Gifts the fiction of Stephen Graham Jones and Ryan Mecum s Zombie Haiku In a time when popular culture and scholarship has been overrun with the undead this original study offers a refreshing look at the zombie and what it can tell us about about our world going into and emerging from global catastrophe
