From Ruth's Kitchen with Love Ruth Glasberg Gold, 2010-09-30 As a multi faceted author gracious hostess and cook Ruth has long been admired by her many friends who have been invited to her dinners One cannot forget her multi ethnic specialties among them Romanian eggplant salad Colombian Ajiaco potato soup Bukovinian Schmettentorte sour cream cake to name just a small sampling of her culinary repertoire French gastronome Jean Brillat Savarin once remarked that the discovery of a new dish does more for the happiness of the new race than the discovery of a star George Bernard Shaw also believed that there was no love more sincere than the love of food A sampling of the recipes from this book readily confirms both opinions Vladimir F Wertsman author of What s Cooking in Multicultural America Scarecrow Press 1996 This is an unpretentious cookbook designed for epicurean tastes It is also a tribute to the women of various ethnic backgrounds who left us the legacy of fine cuisine which I hope to pass on to future generations The majority of these recipes are from Bukovina once Northern Romania and other countries which were once part of the Austro Hungarian Empire Some of the

Bukovinian dishes are almost legendary in their nostalgia Many have never before been documented and most probably have never been featured on restaurant menus I have wandered across four continents and have experienced life under monarchies communism and fascism all of which I survived These multiple acculturations were extremely difficult but had also some positive effects one of them being the acquisition of a myriad of recipes I am pleased to share with you some of them in the hope that you will enjoy this adventure as much as I did Ruth Glasberg Gold

Sweet Treats around the World Timothy G. Roufs, Kathleen Smyth Roufs, 2014-07-29 From apple pie to baklava cannoli to gulab jamun sweet treats have universal appeal in countries around the world This encyclopedia provides a comprehensive look at global dessert culture Few things represent a culture as well as food Because sweets are universal foods they are the perfect basis for a comparative study of the intersection of history geography social class religion politics and other key aspects of life With that in mind this encyclopedia surveys nearly 100 countries examining their characteristic sweet treats from an anthropological perspective It offers historical context on what sweets are popular where and why and emphasizes the cross cultural insights those sweets present The reference opens with an overview of general trends in desserts and sweet treats Entries organized by country and region describe cultural attributes of local desserts how and when sweets are enjoyed and any ingredients that are iconic Several popular desserts are discussed within each entry including information on their history their importance and regional cultural variations on preparation An appendix of recipes provides instructions on how to make many of the dishes whether for school projects or general entertaining

Cookbook from Transylvania and other places of the world (Carte de bucate ardelenesti si nu numa') Gelu Radu, Corina Radu, This is the first ever book written in Transylvanian dialect and English Husband and wife Gelu and Corina Radu were born in the heart of Transylvania where they also learnt to cook While Gelu is a professional chef Corina is an economist However that doesn't mean she's less skilled at cooking They have a friendly rivalry going trying to outdo the other by cooking healthy and tasty dishes The ones who mostly benefited from this are their two children tefan and Gabriel This is not an ordinary cookbook It doesn't contain extremely complicated recipes Rather it focuses on dishes anyone should be able to cook It contains traditional recipes from all over the world not just Transylvania Each recipe includes step by step illustrations guiding you from start to finish
