Juliet by Arthur Brooke in 1562 and retold in prose in Palace of Pleasure by William Painter in 1567 Shakespeare borrowed heavily from both but expanded the plot by developing a number of supporting characters particularly Mercutio and Paris Believed to have been written between 1591 and 1595 the play was first published in a quarto version in 1597 The text of the first quarto version was of poor quality however and later editions corrected the text to conform more closely with Shakespeare's original Shakespeare's use of his poetic dramatic structure especially effects such as switching between comedy and tragedy to heighten tension his expansion of minor characters and his use of sub plots to embellish the story has been praised as an early sign of his dramatic skill The play ascribes different poetic forms to different characters sometimes changing the form as the character develops Romeo for example grows more adept at the sonnet over the course of the play
