Roni Horn Dictionary Of Water:

Roni Horn Nora Burnett Abrams, Jarrett Earnest, Anne Carson, Roni Horn, 2025-09-09 A comprehensive look at the celebrated work of contemporary artist Horn whose innovative exploration of water as a medium and metaphor has established her as a vital voice in the discourse on identity perception and the environment This book is a captivating exploration of Horn s decades long fascination with water both as a material and a metaphor Known for her provocative approach to perception identity and the mutability of form Horn uses water to mirror human experience and emotion Born in 1955 in New York Horn has spent decades pushing the boundaries of art to explore the complexities of identity perception and nature Horn s body of work spans photography cast glass and installation consistently returning to the theme of fluidity Her iconic series You Are the Weather 100 photographs of Icelandic artist Margr t Haraldsd ttir Bl ndal submerged in water reveals how water can both obscure and define identity Similarly her liquid glass sculptures play with the tension between solidity and fluidity their colors ranging from turquoise to black In an era marked by climate change and water scarcity Horn s works pose urgent questions about water as a shared resource and a symbol of impermanence and survival This volume not only offers a retrospective of her water centered works but also connects them to broader global challenges with critical and poetic texts by Nora Burnett Abrams Jarrett Earnest Anne Carson and the artist herself

The Contemporary Medieval in Practice Clare A. Lees, Gillian R. Overing, 2019-10-07 Contemporary arts both practice and methods offer medieval scholars innovative ways to examine explore and reframe the past Medievalists offer contemporary studies insights into cultural works of the past that have been made or reworked in the present Creative critical writing invites the adaptation of scholarly style using forms such as the dialogue short essay and the poem these are the authors argue appropriate ways to explore innovative pathways from the contemporary to the medieval and vice versa Speculative and non traditional The Contemporary Medieval in Practice adapts the conventional scholarly essay to reflect its cross disciplinary creative subject This book does Medieval Studies differently by bringing it into relation with the field of contemporary arts and by making practice in the sense used by contemporary arts and by creative critical writing central to it Intersecting with a number of urgent critical discourses and cultural practices such as the study of the environment and the ethics of understanding bodies identities and histories this short accessible book offers medievalists a distinctive voice in multi disciplinary trans chronological collaborative conversations about the Humanities Its subject is early medieval British culture often termed Anglo Saxon Studies c 500 1100 and its relation with use of and re working in contemporary visual poetic and material culture after 1950 The Contemporary Medieval in Practice is both wise and unafraid to take risks Fully embedded in scholarship yet reaching into unmapped territory the authors move across disciplines and forge surprising links Thought provoking and evocative this is a book that will have an impact that far belies its modest length Linda Anderson Newcastle University

The Hydrocene Bronwyn Bailey-Charteris, 2024-05-09 This book challenges conventional notions of the

Anthropocene and champions the Hydrocene the Age of Water It presents the Hydrocene as a disruptive conceptual epoch and curatorial theory emphasising water's pivotal role in the climate crisis and contemporary art The Hydrocene is a wet ontological shift in eco aesthetics which redefines our approach to water transcending anthropocentric neo colonial and environmentally destructive ways of relating to water As the most fundamental of elements water has become increasingly politicised threatened and challenged by the climate crisis In response The Hydrocene articulates and embodies the distinctive ways contemporary artists relate and engage with water offering valuable lessons towards climate action Through five compelling case studies across swamp river ocean fog and ice this book binds feminist environmental humanities theories with the practices of eco visionary artists Focusing on Nordic and Oceanic water based artworks it demonstrates how art can disrupt established human water dynamics By engaging hydrofeminist care based and planetary thinking The Hydrocene learns from the knowledge and agency of water itself within the tide of art going into the blue The Hydrocene urgently highlights the transformative power of eco visionary artists in reshaping human water relations At the confluence of contemporary art curatorial theory climate concerns and environmental humanities this book is essential reading for researchers curators artists students and those seeking to reconsider their connection with water and advocate for climate justice amid the ongoing natural cultural water crisis The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete, 2020-10-01 In The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete brings together contemporary women writers and artists well known for their formal experimentation Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Lygia Clark Marguerite Duras Roni Horn and Clarice Lispector to argue that the aesthetic experiences afforded by their work are underwritten by a tenacious and uniquely feminine ethics of desire To elaborate this ethics Negrete looks to notions of sublimation and feminine sexuality developed by Freud Baudelaire Mallarmé and Nietzsche and their reinvention with and after Jacques Lacan including in the schizoanalysis of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari But she also highlights how psychoanalytic theory draws on writing and other creative practices to conceive of unconscious processes and the transformation sought through analysis Thus the aesthetic clinic of the book's title a term Negrete adopts from Deleuze is not an applied psychoanalysis or schizoanalysis Rather The Aesthetic Clinic privileges the call and constraints issued by each woman's individual work Engaging an artwork here is less about retrieving a hidden meaning through interpretation than about receiving a precise transmission of sensation a jouissance irreducible to meaning Not only do art and literature serve an urgent clinical function in Negrete's reading but sublimation itself requires an embrace of femininity

Water and Art David Clarke,2012-01-01 Restless protean fluid evanescent despite being a challenge to represent visually water has gained a striking significance in the art of the twentieth century This may be due to the fact that it allows for a range of metaphorical meanings many of which are particularly appropriate to the modern age Water is not merely a subject of contemporary art but also a material increasingly used in art making giving it a distinct dual presence Water and Art probes the ways in which water has gained an unprecedented prominence in modern Western art and seeks to draw connections to its depiction in earlier art forms David Clarke looks across cultures finding parallels within contemporary Chinese art which draws on a cultural tradition in which water has an essential presence and is used as both a subject and a medium The book features a wealth of images by artists from East and West including Fu Baoshi Shi Tao Wei Zixi Fang Rending Leonardo da Vinci Bernini Turner Gericault Klee Matisse Monet Picasso Mondrian and Kandinsky Fast paced accessible and comprehensive Water and Art will appeal to the specialist and the general reader alike offering fresh perspectives on familiar artists as well as an introduction to others who are less well known

Frieze Art Fair Frieze,2004-11-13 London s Frieze Art Fair is now one of the world s leading contemporary art fairs Organized by the influential contemporary art magazine of the same name and successfully launched in 2003 it has been called one of the very best fairs for contemporary art This annual event brings together the 200 most dynamic contemporary galleries in the world with each nominating three of their most exciting artists creating an exhibition of more than 300 artworks From established stars like Damien Hirst and Jeff Koons to unheralded emerging talent the fair provides an intriguing snapshot of the global contemporary art scene This catalogue of the fair documents all the works exhibited Each artist s entry includes an image of their work a short article a biography and a bibliography An index and resource section will reference all the artists and galleries involved This comprehensive record of an important international art event will be an essential reference for collectors dealers curators and fans of contemporary art

Monument Culture Laura A. Macaluso,2019-05-30 Monument Culture International Perspectives on the Future of Monuments in a Changing World brings together a collection of essays from scholars and cultural critics working on the meanings of monuments and memorials in the second decade of the twenty first century a time of great social and political change The book presents a broad view of the challenges facing individuals and society in making sense of public monuments with contested meanings From the United States to Europe to Africa to Australia and New Zealand to South America and beyond the contributors tackle the ways in which different places approach monuments in a landscape where institutions and ideas are under direct challenge from political and social unrest It also discusses sharply changed attitudes about the representation of history and memory in the public sphere The goal is to acknowledge shared experiences through a wider perspective to contribute to the work of the world wide heritage community and to document the history and shifting cultural attitudes towards monument culture across the world encouraging a more informed approach to monuments and their meanings especially for the public and those outside of academia

Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2001 "Art, Technology and Nature " Camilla Skovbjerg Paldam, 2017-07-05 Since 1900 the connections between art and technology with nature have become increasingly inextricable Through a selection of innovative readings by international scholars this book presents the first investigation of the intersections between art technology and nature in post medieval times Transdisciplinary in approach this volume s 14 essays explore art technology and nature s shifting constellations that are discernible at the micro level and as part of a larger chronological pattern Included are subjects ranging from Renaissance wooden dolls science in the Italian art academies and artisanal epistemologies in the followers of Leonardo to Surrealism and its precursors in Mannerist grotesques and the Wunderkammer eighteenth century plant printing the climate and its artistic presentations from Constable to Olafur Eliasson and the hermeneutics of bioart In their comprehensive introduction editors Camilla Skovbjerg

Paldam and Jacob Wamberg trace the Kantian heritage of radically separating art and technology and inserting both at a distance to nature suggesting this was a transient chapter in history Thus they argue the present renegotiation between art technology and nature is reminiscent of the ancient and medieval periods in which art and technology were categorized as aspects of a common area of cultivated products and their methods the Latin ars the Greek techne an area moreover supposed to imitate the creative forces of nature Aesthetics of Religion Alexandra K. Grieser, Jay Johnston, 2017-12-18 This volume is the first English language presentation of the innovative approaches developed in the aesthetics of religion The chapters present diverse material and detailed analysis on descriptive methodological and theoretical concepts that together explore the potential of an aesthetic approach for investigating religion as a sensory and mediated practice In dialogue with yet different from other major movements in the field material culture anthropology of the senses for instance it is the specific intent of this approach to create a framework for understanding the interplay between sensory cognitive and socio cultural aspects of world construction The volume demonstrates that aesthetics as a theory of sensory knowledge offers an elaborate repertoire of concepts that can help to understand religious traditions These approaches take into account contemporary developments in scientific theories of perception neuro aesthetics and cultural studies highlighting the socio cultural and political context informing how humans perceive themselves and the world around them Developing since the 1990s the aesthetic approach has responded to debates in the study of religion in particular striving to overcome biased categories that confined religion either to texts and abstract beliefs or to an indisputable sui generis mode of experience This volume documents what has been achieved to date its significance for the study of religion and for interdisciplinary scholarship Bookforum ,2001 Dictionary of Artists: Herring - Koonrstra Emmanuel Bénézit, 2006 First English language edition of Emmanuel Bénézit's Dictionnaire critique et documentaire des peintres sculpteurs dessinateurs et graveurs based on the 14 volume French edition published in 1999 It has been revised adapted and updated Preface

Thames Peter Ackroyd, 2009-11-03 In this perfect companion to London The Biography Peter Ackroyd once again delves into the hidden byways of history describing the river's endless allure in a journey overflowing with characters incidents and wry observations Thames The Biography meanders gloriously rather like the river itself In short lively chapters Ackroyd writes about connections between the Thames and such historical figures as Julius Caesar and Henry VIII and offers memorable portraits of the ordinary men and women who depend upon the river for their livelihoods The Thames as a source of artistic inspiration comes brilliantly to life as Ackroyd invokes Chaucer Shakespeare Turner Shelley and other writers poets and painters who have been enchanted by its many moods and colors Water, Water Everywhere ,2005

American/Medieval Goes North Gillian R. Overing, Ulrike Wiethaus, 2019-10-07 One of the great virtues of American Medieval Goes North is its wide range of contributors with fascinatingly diverse relationships to the main terms of analysis There are academic scholars poets filmmakers tribal elders teachers at various levels there are Indigenous people people from settler colonial cultures expats immigrants Their analytic and imaginative encounters with the North catch at the intensely symbolic and political charge of that locus At a time when Medieval Studies cannot afford to ignore the period s popular uptake cannot continue with business as usual in the face of white supremacists brazen appropriations of the Middle Ages this volume points to new possibilities for grappling with the uneasy relationships between the American and the medieval Prof Carolyn Dinshaw New York University
