Routes Travel And Translation In The Late Twentieth Century Paperback:

Routes James Clifford, 1997-04-21 When culture makes itself at home in motion where does an anthropologist stand Clifford offers a new view of anthropology It is he says a moving picture of a world that reveals itself en route In this collage of essays meditations poems and travel reports Clifford takes travel and translation as openings into a complex modernity

American Borders Paula Barba Guerrero, Mónica Fernández Jiménez, 2023-11-15 American Borders Inclusion and Exclusion in US Culture provides an overview of American culture produced in a range of contexts from the founding of the nation to the age of globalization and neoliberalism in order to understand the diverse literary landscapes of the United States from a twenty first century perspective The authors confront American exceptionalism discourses on freedom and democracy and US foundational narratives by reassessing the literary canon and exploring ethnic literature culture and film with a focus on identity and exclusion Their contributions envision different manifestations of conviviality and estrangement and deconstruct neoliberal slogans analyzing hospitable inclusion in relation to national history and ideologies By looking at representations of foreignness and conditional belonging in literature and film from different ethnic traditions the volume fleshes out a new border dialectic that conveys the heterogeneity of American boundaries beyond the opposition inside

Travel Writing and Empire Steven H. Clark, 1999 Travel writing has become central to postcolonial studies This book provides an introduction to the genre particularly to its dynamics of power and representation and the degree to which it has promoted ideologies of empire The book combines detailed evaluations of major contemporary models of analysis new historicism travelling theory and post colonial studies with a series of specific studies detailing the complicity of the genre with a history of violent incursion from Columbus reports from the New World through to the nomadism of postmodern travelogue Among its particular areas of concern are Othering discourses of cannibalism and infanticide the production of colonial knowledge geographic medicinal zoological the role of sexual anxiety in the construction of the gendered travelling body the interplay between imperial and domestic spheres reappropriation of alien discourse by indigenous cultures Post colonial studies has concentrated on travellers as conduits of erasure and appropriation This book resists the temptation to think in terms of a simple monolithic Eurocentrism and offers a more complex reading of texts produced before during and after periods of imperial ascendancy In doing so it provides a more nuanced account of the hegemonic functions of travel writing As such it is necessary reading for students and academics of cultural studies literary theory anthropology and history

Travelling Home, 'Walkabout Magazine' and Mid-Twentieth-Century Australia Mitchell Rolls, Anna Johnston, 2016-07-06 Travelling Home provides a detailed analysis of the contribution that the mid twentieth century Walkabout magazine made to Australia's cultural history Spanning five central decades of the twentieth century 1934 1974 Walkabout was integral to Australia's sense of itself as a nation By advocating travel both vicarious and actual Walkabout encouraged settler Australians to broaden their image of the nation and its place in the Pacific region In this way Walkabout explicitly aimed to make its readers feel at home in their country as well as including a diverse picture of Aboriginal and Pacific cultures Given its wide availability and distribution together with its accessible and entertaining content Walkabout changed how Australia was perceived and the magazine is recalled with nostalgic fondness by most if not all of its former readers Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship Travelling Home engages with key questions in literary cultural and Australian studies about national identity and modernity The book's diverse topics demonstrate how Walkabout canvassed subtle and shifting fields of representation as a result this analysis produces complex and nuanced readings of Australian literary and cultural history

Bad Marxism John Hutnyk, 2004-06-20 Cultural Studies commonly claims to be a radical discipline This book thinks that's a bad assessment Cultural theorists love to toy with Marx but critical thinking seems to fall into obvious traps After an introduction which explains why the Marxism of the academy is unrecognisable and largely unrecognised in anti capitalist struggles Bad Marxism provides detailed analyses of Cultural Studies cherished moves by holding fieldwork archives empires hybrids and exchange up against the practical criticism of anti capitalism Engaging with the work of key thinkers Jacques Derrida James Clifford Gayatri Spivak Georges Bataille Homi Bhabha Michael Hardt and Toni Negri Hutnyk concludes by advocating an open Marxism that is both pro party and pro critique while being neither dogmatic nor dull

Between Two Fires Justin Quinn, 2015-09-10 Between Two Fires is about the transnational movement of poetry during the Cold War Beginning in the 1950s it examines transnational engagements across the Iron Curtain reassessing US poetry through a consideration of overlooked radical poets of the mid century and then asking what such transactions tell us about the way that anglophone culture absorbed new models during this period The Cold War synchronized culture across the globe leading to similar themes forms and critical maneuvers Poetry a discourse routinely figured as distant from political concerns was profoundly affected by the ideological pressures of the period But beyond such mirroring there were many movements across the Iron Curtain despite the barriers of cultural and language difference state security surveillance spies traitors and translators Justin Quinn shows how such factors are integral to transnational cultural movements during this period and have influenced even postwar anglophone poetry that is thematically distant from the Cold War For the purposes of the study Czech poetry its writers its translators its critics stands on the other side of the Iron Curtain as receptor and which has been overlooked part creator of the anglophone tradition in this period By stepping outside the frameworks by which anglophone poetry is usually considered we see figures such as Robert Lowell Derek Walcott Allen Ginsberg and Seamus Heaney in a new way with respect to the ideological mechanisms that were at work behind the promotion of the aesthetic as a category independent of political considerations foremost among these postcolonial theory

Native Studies Keywords Stephanie Nohelani Teves, Andrea Smith, Michelle Raheja, 2015-05-21 Native Studies Keywords is a genealogical project that looks at the history of words that claim to have no history The end goal is not to determine which words are appropriate but to critically examine words that are crucial to Native studies in hopes of promoting debate and critical interrogation

The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman, Jenny Wüstenberg, 2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic frameworks for scholars students policymakers journalists and activists alike

Women, Collecting, and Cultures Beyond Europe Arlene Leis, 2022-11-04 This book examines collecting around the world and how women have participated in and formed collections globally The edited volume builds on recent research and offers a wider lens through which to examine and challenge women's collecting histories Spanning from the seventeenth century to the twenty first although not organized chronologically the research herein extends beyond European geographies and across time periods it brings to light new research on how artificialia and naturalia were collected transported exchanged and or displayed beyond Europe Women Collecting and Cultures Beyond Europe considers collections as points of contact that forged transcultural connections and knowledge exchange Some authors focus mainly on collectors and what was collected while others consider taxonomies travel patterns of consumption migration markets and the after life of things In its broad and interdisciplinary approach this book amplifies women's voices and aims to position their collecting practices toward new transcultural directions including women's relation to distinct cultures customs and beliefs as well as exposing the challenges women faced when carving a place for themselves within global networks This study will be of interest to scholars working in collections and collecting conservation museum studies art history women's studies material and visual cultures Indigenous studies textile histories global studies history of science social and cultural histories

Avenues of Translation Regina Galasso, Evelyn Scaramella, 2019-04-15 Winner of the 2020 SAMLA Studies Book Award Edited Collection Cities both near and far communicate in a variety of ways Travel between through and among urban centers initiates contact and cities themselves are sites of ever changing cultural and historical encounters Predictable and surprising challenges and opportunities arise when city borders are crossed voices meet and artistic traditions find their counterparts Using the Latin word for translation translatio or to carry across as a point of departure Avenues of Translation explores how translation perpetuates diversifies deepens and expands the literary production of cities in their greater cultural context and how translation shapes an understanding of and access to a city's past and present literary and cultural practices Thinking about translation and the city is a way to tell the backstories of the cities texts and authors that are united by acts of translation Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Casino and Museum John Joseph Bodinger de Uriarte, 2007-05-03 The past twenty five years have seen enormous changes in Native America One of the most profound expressions of change has been within the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation The Nation has overcome significant hurdles to establish itself as a potent cultural and economic force highlighted by the Mashantucket Pequot Museum and Research Center and Foxwoods the largest casino in the Western Hemisphere In Casino and Museum John J Bodinger de Uriarte sees these two main commercial structures of the reservation as mutually supporting industries generating both material and symbolic capital To some degree both institutions offer Native representations yet create different strategies for attracting and engaging visitors While the casino is crucial as an economic generator the museum has an important role as the space for authentic Mashantucket Pequot images and narratives The book's focus is on how the casino and the museum successfully deploy different strategies to take control of the tribe's identity image and cultural agency Photographs in the book provide a view of Mashantucket allowing the reader to study the spaces of the book's central arguments They are a key methodology of the project and offer a non textual opportunity to navigate the sites as well as one finely focused way to work through the representation and formation of the Native American photographic subject the powerful popular imagining of Native Americans Casino and Museum presents a unique understanding of the prodigious role that representation plays in the contemporary poetics and politics of Native America It is essential reading for scholars of Native American studies museum studies cultural studies and photography Arab Cinema Travels Kay Dickinson, 2019-07-25 Exploring the impact of travel on Arab cinema Kay Dickinson reveals how the cinemas of Syria Palestine and Dubai have been shaped by the history and politics of international circulation This compelling book offers fresh insights into film mobility and the Middle East The Liturgy of Life Ricky Manalo, 2014 Everyday worship practices from praying the rosary to moments of recognizing the beauty of God's creation from being moved by the power of music to praying Vespers on an iPad not only take place at different locations and during different days of the week but also dynamically interact with one another The Liturgy of Life examines the interrelationship between the practice of Sunday Eucharist and the many unofficial worship practices that mark the everyday lives of Christians who continually negotiate the boundaries of official teaching on liturgy Drawing on the writings of theologians and sociologists of lived religion and data from an ethnographic research project this timely work stretches the contextual horizon of liturgical scholarship and presents a provocative and dynamic paradigm of Christian worship for the twenty first century Taiwan Literature in the 21st Century Chia-rong Wu, Ming-ju Fan, 2023-02-03 This book is an anthology of research co edited by Dr Chia rong Wu University of Canterbury and Professor Ming ju Fan National Chengchi University This collection of original essays integrates and expands research on Taiwan literature because it includes both established and young writers It not only engages with the evolving trends of literary Taiwan but also promotes the translocal consciousness and cultural diversity of the island state and beyond Focusing on the new directions and trends of Taiwan literature this edited book fits into Taiwan studies
