Transnational

Commercial Law Maren Heidemann, 2018-11-14 Transnational Commercial Law is a textbook that deals predominantly with substantive legal contract rules that apply across borders and are designed to govern cross border business transactions. This is an emerging field of research teaching and practical interest in international trade and commercial law requiring reference to multiple areas of law including both private and public international law, the law of specific commercial transactions and arbitration. For the first time Transnational Commercial Law combines all these relevant issues in one book and provides a basis for further study as well as detailed cutting edge academic analyses. It provides a compact yet accessible guide to the most important cornerstones of this evolving legal discipline. Transnational Commercial Law is aimed primarily for use on LLM courses and master's programmes in commercial law. Students are presented with the actual contractual rules in the wider context of the general legal framework and situates it within the theoretical debate providing a truly international perspective on transnational commercial law in a globalised world. Principles of Commercial Law Austen-Baker, Richard, Akintola, Kayode, Ahmed, Mukarrum, Adeyemo, Folashade, 2022-06-14 This introductory level textbook offers a clear and concise overview of commercial law for undergraduate law students. Covering all the key areas of law that may be included in a commercial law module including agency, sale of goods, bailments, carriage of goods, commercial financing and conflict of laws, it also introduces relevant elements of related fields such as banking and insolvency law and touches on emerging issues such as cryptocurrencies. Essays on International Law Graeme Baber, 2017-01-06 This book contains ten writings on different aspects of international law, each of them cross referenced in instances in which information in one is relevant to points made in another. The first essay considers the character of the subject and its relation to other entities of relevance to it such as its compatibility with national law and its relation to maritime law. The second one considers different types of legal instruments in settings of international law and explains how to read a multilateral convention using the Convention for the International Sale of Goods as an example. The third part discusses the characteristics of a state and the concept of recognition. The fourth reviews the various roles that institutions take in international law, concentrating in particular on major regional organisations and the fifth explores the extent to which the World Trade Organisation and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade provide for developing countries. Essay Six summarises the framework for international labour law and investigates its contents and workings. Then the seventh considers which countries predominate in the running of international institutions. The eighth paper explores how regional entities might co-operate with international institutions in the harmonisation of the law and the ninth one investigates the place of negotiation as a method of international dispute resolution. Finally the tenth essay considers the past, present and future of international law and reviews especially the role of language. Research Handbook on International Commercial Contracts Andrew Hutchison, Franziska Myburgh, 2020-12-25 This comprehensive Research Handbook examines the continuum between private ordering and state regulation in the lex mercatoria, highlighting constancy and change in this dynamic and evolving system in
