Railway Discourse Esterino Adami, 2019-01-15 This volume examines the train trope in a variety of cultural literary and linguistic contexts from contemporary crime fiction and dystopian graphic narratives to postcolonial railway travelogues by employing a range of methods and frameworks Situated within the Discourse Pragmatics and Sociolinguistics collection the book critically engages with significant areas such as discourse and narrative structure Interpreting the railway as a powerful cultural and imaginary site in the English speaking world that traverses a range of creative domains this study explores the ways in which the train and its structures symbols and metaphors are textually rendered and the type of stylistic effects they generate in readers It introduces frames and discusses the idea of railway discourse and focuses on specific case studies The Girl on the Train by Paula Hawkins the graphic novel Snowpiercer and Monisha Rajesh's Around India in 80 Trains In particular it considers how a compartment window can constrain and shape the point of view of a narrator the way in which science fiction trains are conceptually imagined and the intercultural implications of rail travel writing in India today To analyse the role and meaning of the railway in these texts and compare them with others this work adopts and adapts analytical tools and critical concepts from the integration of different fields such as stylistics and linguistics postcolonial criticism and literary studies

Literature and Religion Ou Guang-an, David Jasper, 2022-07-28 How does one culture read another In Literature and Religion two scholars one from China and one from the West each read texts from the other's culture as a means of dialogue A key issue in such an enterprise is the nature of religion and what we understand by that term in a world in which ancient religious customs seem to be dying or under threat Does a comparative study of religious literature offer a way towards mutual understanding or merely illustrate our differences Underpinned by their own friendship these two partners in conversation show what is possible The Oxford Companion to the Book: D-Z Michael F.

Suarez, H. R. Woudhuysen, 2010 This is a reference work by an international team of scholars covering the book from ancient times to the present day Introductory essays explore the history and technology of the book and the range of genres It provides surveys of the book around the world which are followed by over 5 000 A-Z entries Literatures of Memory Peter Middleton, Tim Woods, 2000 Not only do drama and poetry about the past and historical novels reveal a shared understanding of pivotal moments historical figures and every life of earlier times say Middleton English U of Southampton and Woods English U of Wales Aberystwyth they also outline more general beliefs about the past and its relation to the present It is
