Wherever you live you will find fresh local ingredients specific to your area that are available during certain times of the year. Before you choose your recipe think of the produce that is in season at farmers markets or in abundance at the supermarket. Even though different parts of the country have different growing seasons and much produce is shipped from overseas each season still offers produce that is specific to that time of year. Of course dairy, protein and grains are available year round and those ingredients are a must for many recipes. By planning ahead with your recipe choices to include ingredients that are in season your menus will always be delicious and farm fresh.

Best Recipes of the Maritime Provinces, 2012-09-25

Maritime cooking starts with great local produce: lobster, scallops, oysters, blueberries, apples, cranberries, maple syrup and more. There are treasured traditional dishes: hodge podge, baked beans, gingerbread, blueberry grunt, as well as the simple but delicious lobster boil. Leading chefs like Craig Flinn of Halifax's Chives restaurant, Michael Howell of The Tempest in Wolfville and many others have come up with wonderful new ways of cooking with fresh local ingredients.

Best Recipes of the Maritime Provinces brings the traditional and the contemporary together in one great collection. During her many years as Canadian Living magazine's food editor, Elizabeth Baird was a great fan of Maritime cooking. She has visited every corner of the region to research and write about great local producers and cooks and their recipes. To prepare this collection she started with well over 1,000 recipes published in cookbooks over the past three decades. From those she has selected 400

recipes by over fifty of the region's leading chefs including Elaine Elliot and Virginia Lee whose bestselling Maritime Flavours has sold more than 30 000 copies Also included are tasty recipes from healthy eating champions Maureen Tilley and Sandra Nowlan This is the book that every Maritime cook will want and that visitors will take home so they can explore the region's rich culinary traditions
