Report Stolen Car Vancouver:

Report of the Inspectors of Penitentiaries for the Fiscal Year Ended March 31 ... Canada. Office of the Inspector of Penitentiaries,1910 Cold Case Vancouver Eve Lazarus,2016-05-16 Cold Case Vancouver delves into fifty years of some of Vancouver s most baffling unsolved murders In 1953 two little boys were found murdered in the city s storied Stanley Park and who remain unidentified to this day In 1975 a country singer was murdered just as she was on the verge of an amazing career And in 1994 Nick Masee a retired banker with connections to the renegade Vancouver Stock Exchange disappeared along with his wife Lisa their bodies never found Cold Case Vancouver is an intriguing whodunit for true crime aficionados and armchair detectives Eve Lazarus s previous books include Sensational Vancouver House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1899 Wearing Red, Tracking Reds: What a Ride! Leonard N. Giles,2010-04-08 Entering the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in 1960 with visions of rural police duties highway patrol or perhaps plain clothes detective work I ended up in an unanticipated place completely foreign to my expectations In 1964 I was inducted into the obscure and secretive world of subversion and counter espionage investigations One of the first books I was instructed to read was The Theory and Practice of Communism hardly the stuff I was interested in I didn t know much about the Security and Intelligence Branch and I had a lot to learn about Communists the Reds Lenin s Lads or whatever they called them Previously my closest encounter with anything related to communism was the Cold War bomb shelter at my first Detachment a Soviet diplomat driving a Cadillac that I stopped for speeding and massive United States troop movements I observed in Los Angeles at the height of the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis That showdown between U S President John F Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was probably the closest the World has ever come to all out nuclear war That event and the ever present threats posed by the Cold War convinced me I needed to get serious about the work I was about to embark upon This book covers the challenge of maintaining pace with the gathering storm of Chinese political and economic espionage while at the same time coping with the organizational and individual stress of the McDonald Commission inquiries It also speaks of the complexities of staffing management responses during these trying times of careers floundering and some flowering as the new Service inundated with over sight new policies procedures restrictions and guidelines tried to get its feet firmly on the ground The stigma of old wine in a new bottle held sway in a climate of trying to move forward Then the catastrophe of the 1985 Air India bombing Canada s 911 complicated matters even further while C S I S was still in its infancy The drama seems to be without end as the Phase II report of the Major Commission of Inquiry into the Investigation of the Bombing of Air India Flight 182 has at the time of this publication yet to be released This is a telling memoir of a career in policing intelligence and counter espionage in Canada and overseas in Services in the midst of traumatic organizational change and stress mixed with inexplicable management tactics and the pride of diplomatic service

Discrimination and Denial Clayton James Mosher,1998-01-01 Champion sprinter Donovan Bailey said it and this book confirms it While racism may not be as blatant in Canada as in the United States it does exist Members of visible minority groups are discriminated against in employment housing and access to public services The increasing visibility of hate groups and calls to restrict immigration mark the growing tension Racist attitudes against Asians and Blacks in particular have seeped into the criminal justice system Ironically since 1960 it has been illegal in Ontario to track crime by race making it difficult for researchers to collect data The media our primary source of information has sensationalized crimes where minority groups are implicated Clayton Mosher uses historical data and media reports to expose racism in Canada s social legal and criminal justice systems He considers the social contexts of discrimination legislation directed against minority groups law enforcement and court outcomes At last we are offered an objective assessment of racism in Canada Discrimination and Denial is essential reading for judges lawyers police officers social policy makers and community leaders Interpretations of recent events such as the shooting of officer Todd Baylis by a fugitive alien and gang style slayings in Toronto s Chinatown are guaranteed to heat up the embers of public debate

Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1899 Annual Report of the Commissioner of Penitentiaries Canada. Department of Justice,1908 Report Royal Canadian Mounted Police,1929 Vancouver Blue Wayne Cope,2015-04-25 Wayne Cope has TV to blame for starting him on his long career as an officer of the Vancouver Police Department He grew up watching gunslingers like James Arness and Richard Boone inspiring him to join up even before he finished college and his real life working career has turned out to be more exciting than he could have hoped In his years on the force from 1975 to 2006 Cope has seen practically everything on the ever changing streets of Vancouver he s worked as a jailer and a traffic cop talked people down from bridges worked on dog squads gone undercover in pursuit of serious criminals and worked the historical unsolved homicide unit And behind each assignment there s a story a joke or a revealing insight into the realities of police work In Vancouver Blue Cope shares pearls of wisdom and anecdotes inspired by his years on the force describing some of the most outlandish costumes for undercover drug purchases many different ways to total a brand new motorbike and the precise ratio of competent officers to idiots in any given squad He also sheds light on the behind the scenes life of VPD officers and their off duty antics Cope also provides detailed accounts of some of his most fascinating cases like the sensational Centrefold Murder and the infamous killing of the Stanley Park flamingoes For those looking for even more insight into the mind of a detective Cope has created a cipher with a theme inspired by the book offering a reward of five Canadian Silver Maple Leaf coins to the first person to break the code Report British Columbia.
