Final Report Upon a Series of Research and Policy Workshops on Reducing Vulnerability Among Families in the Mexico and US Border Region Peter M. Ward,1999 Citizenship 2.0 Yossi Harpaz,2019-09-17 Examining an important rising trend in today's global system Citizenship 2.0 does us a fine service in exploring the origins and consequences of the dual citizenship phenomenon Alejandro Portes Princeton University city After Stories Irina Carlota Silber,2022-08-23 This book builds upon Irina Carlota Lotti Silber's nearly 25 years of ethnographic research centered in Chalatenango El Salvador to follow the trajectories geographic temporal storied of several extended Salvadoran families Traveling back and forth in time and across borders Silber narrates the everyday unfolding of diasporic lives rich with acts of labor love and renewed calls for memory truth and accountability in El Salvador's long postwar Through a retrospective and intimate ethnographic method that examines archives of memories and troubles the categories that have come to stand for El Salvador such as alarming violent numbers Silber considers the lives of young Salvadorans who were brought up in an everyday radical politics and then migrated to the United States after more than a decade of peace and democracy She reflects on this generation of migrants the 1.5 insurgent generation born to forgotten former rank and file militants as well as their intergenerational transnational families to unpack the assumptions and typical ways of knowing in postwar ethnography As the 1.5 generation sustains their radical political project across borders circulates the products of their migrant labor through remittances and engages in collective social care for the debilitated bodies of their loved ones they transform and depart from expectations of the wounded postwar that offer us hope for the making of more just global futures Deported Tanya Maria Golash-Boza,2015-12-11 Winner 2016 Distinguished Contribution to Research Book Award given by the American Sociological Association Latino a Section The intimate stories of 147 deportees that exposes the racialized and gendered dimensions of mass deportations in the U.S The United States currently is deporting more people than ever before 4 million people have been deported since 1997 twice as many as all people deported prior to 1996 There is a disturbing pattern in the population deported 97% of deportees are sent to Latin America or the Caribbean and 88% are men many of whom were originally detained through the U.S criminal justice system Weaving together hard hitting critique and moving first person testimonials Deported tells the intimate stories of people caught in an immigration law enforcement dragnet that serves the aims of global capitalism Tanya Golash Boza uses the stories of 147 of these deportees to explore the racialized and gendered dimensions of mass deportation in the United States showing how this crisis is embedded in economic restructuring neoliberal reforms and the disproportionate criminalization of black and Latino men In the United States outsourcing creates service sector jobs and more of a need for the unskilled jobs that attract immigrants looking for new opportunities but it also leads to deindustrialization decline in urban communities and consequently heavy policing Many immigrants are exposed to the same racial profiling and policing as native born blacks and Latinos Unlike the native born

though when immigrants enter the criminal justice system deportation is often their only way out Ultimately Golash Boza argues that deportation has become a state strategy of social control both in the United States and in the many countries that receive deportees
