Report Elections Francaises 2007:

Nigeria's 2007 Elections Jibrin Ibrahim, 2007 The 2012 French Presidential Elections J. Evans, G. Ivaldi, 2013-11-21

Was the victory of François Hollande the Socialist challenger to Nicolas Sarkozy inevitable in the 2012 French Presidential elections This book argues that a combination of economic downturn policy choices and personal unpopularity meant that the Right wing incumbent faced an almost impossible task in holding onto power for another five years French Presidential Elections M. Lewis-Beck, R. Nadeau, É. Bélanger, 2012-01-06 An original and comprehensive study of the sociological and psychological forces driving individual choices in French Presidential elections Based on a unique comparative analysis of four French presidential contests over the last two decades this book presents a rigorous examination of long term and short term voter motivations The Quest for the National Interest Petr Drulák, Mats Braun, 2010 The concept of national interest belongs among the most widely used and abused concepts in the foreign policy debate This volume illustrates how the term can be used as a meaningful analytical tool It introduces three criteria relevance domestic consensus and external acceptance which serve to identify national interest The authors apply these criteria to Czech foreign policy making and provide some interesting findings concerning a country's possibilities to define and pursue its national interest Since the authors use four different methodologies case studies discourse analysis grounded theory and ethnography the volume also shows the variety of possible ways to analyse national interests The JCMS Annual Review of the European Union in 2007 Ulrich Sedelmeier, Alasdair R. Young, 2008-09-09 The Annual Review produced in association with JCMS The Journal of Common Market Studies covers the key developments in the European Union its member states and acceding and or applicant countries in 2007 It contains key analytical articles on political economic and legal issues in the EU by leading experts together with a keynote article on Russia EU relations by Margot Light and a review article on comparative regionalism by Alberta Sbragia Covers the key developments in the European Union and its Member States in 2007 The Review is the most up to date and authoritative source of information for those engaged in teaching and research or who are simply interested in the European Union Provides guidance on recent important documents and scholarly publications together with a chronology of key events Thirteenth report of session 2010-11 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee, 2011-01-27 Thirteenth report of Session 2010 11 Documents considered by the Committee on 12 January 2011 including the following recommendations for debate road safety Treaty change EU Charter of Fundamental Rights report together with formal Minutes Impact of Extreme Right Parties on Immigration Policy Joao Carvalho, 2013-09-05 Drawing on a mixed research methodology with a strong qualitative character this book traces the political impact of the British National Party in the UK the Front National in France and the Lega Nord in Italy by exploring their contagion effects on immigration politics and policy in particular over the patterns of inter party competition public behaviour and policy developments This book suggests that extreme right party impact on immigration politics and policy is an outcome of the extreme right parties electoral threats to established parties alongside the agency of mainstream political elites It also highlights the decline in the intensity of extreme right parties contagion effects on public attitudes to immigration throughout the late 2000s or the potential overstatement of this political process in the past Featuring detailed case studies of the UK France and Italy as three mature multi party democracies where the extreme right was on the rise during the past decade this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of populism extremism European politics and comparative and party politics

The Green Fiscal Mechanism and Reform for Low Carbon Development Akihisa Mori,Paul Ekins,Stefan Speck,Soo-Cheol Lee,Kazuhiro Ueta,2013-10-30 This book reviews how far East Asian nations have implemented green fiscal reform and show how they can advance carbon energy tax reform to realize low carbon development with special reference to European policy and experience East Asian nations are learning European experiences to adopt them in their political economic and institutional contexts However implementation has been slow in practice partly due to low acceptability that comes from the same concerns as in Europe and partly due to weak institutional arrangements for the reform The slow progress in the revenue side turns our eyes on expenditure side how East Asian nations have increased environmental related expenditures and how far they have greened sectorial expenditures This lifecycle assessment of the fiscal reform coupled with the assessment of the institutional arrangement constitutes the features of this book The book helps to provide overall picture of green fiscal reform and carbon energy tax reform in the East Asian region The region has a variety of countries from lowest income to high income nations Nations have different interests in substance and barriers for reform This book covers recent development of environmental fiscal reform and carbon energy taxation in wider nations in the region including South Korea Taiwan Thailand Vietnam Indonesia and Japan In addition the book s holistic view helps to understand why a specific nation has interest and concern on some aspects of the reforms

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Ritual and Rhythm in Electoral Systems Graeme Orr,2016-03-09 Why do we vote in schools What is the social meaning of secret balloting What is lost if we vote by mail or computers rather than on election day What is the history and role of drinking and wagering in elections How does the electoral cycle generate the theatre of election night and inaugurations Elections are key public events in a secular society the only real coming together of the social whole Their rituals and rhythms run deep Yet their conduct is invariably examined in instrumental ways as if they were merely competitive games or liberal apparatus Focusing on the political cultures and laws of the UK the US and Australia this book offers an historicised and generalised account of the intersection of electoral systems and the concepts of ritual rhythm and the everyday which form the basis of how we experience elections As a novel contribution to the theory of the law of elections this book will be of interest to researchers students administrators and policy makers in both politics and law France Mineral, Mining Sector
