House of Commons - Home Affairs Committee: The Work of the UK Border Agency (January-March 2013) - HC 616 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2013-11-08 The Border Agency backlogs by the time it was wound up had fallen to 432 000 However most of the 70 400 reduction was achieved by simply loading pending cases onto the computer and in some categories such as those applying for further leave to remain on the basis of marriage or civil partnership the backlog had actually grown The Committee has no objection in principle to the introduction of a charge for access to the National Health Service for those who are in the UK only temporarily However it expresses concerns about the possible application of the scheme to vulnerable people who have been trafficked into the country and recommends that the Government should pilot an alternative option for visa applicants to take out private health insurance instead This has been a chaotic summer for immigration policy First we had the controversial Advans which were rightly ridiculed and then it was revealed that Capita had botched the contract to clear the migration refusal pool by asking British citizens to leave their own country Finally we saw a u turn on visa bonds however the uncertainty has already done damage A more effective and less menacing message would be that the Government is willing and able to support those who are here illegally to return home if they want to Tough enforcement action should be taken against those who are determined to remain here illegally but for the target audience of potential voluntary returners the effectiveness of the carrot is potentially undermined by the ostentatious brandishing of the stick Thirtieth Report of Session 2012-13 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee,2013-02-06 The Borders of "Europe" Nicholas De Genova,2017-08-26 In recent years the borders of Europe have been perceived as being besieged by a staggering refugee and migration crisis The contributors to The Borders of Europe see this crisis less as an incursion into Europe by external conflicts than as the result of migrants exercising their freedom of movement Addressing the new technologies and technical forms European states use to curb control and constrain what contributors to the volume call the autonomy of migration this book shows how the continent's amorphous borders present a premier site for the enactment and disputation of the very idea of Europe They also outline how from Istanbul to London Sweden to Mali and Tunisia to Latvia migrants are finding ways to subvert visa policies and asylum procedures while negotiating increasingly militarized and surveilled borders Situating the migration crisis within a global frame and attending to migrant and refugee supporters as well as those who stoke nativist fears this timely volume demonstrates how the enforcement of Europe's borders is an important element of the worldwide regulation of human mobility Contributors Ruben Andersson Nicholas De Genova Dace Dzenovska Evelina Gambino Glenda Garelli Charles Heller Clara Lecadet Souad Osseiran Lorenzo Pezzani Fiorenza Picozza Stephan Scheel Maurice Stierl Laia Soto Bermant Martina Tazzioli Reporting the Holocaust in the British, Swedish and Finnish Press, 1945-50 A. Holmila,2011-06-24 Examining how the press in Britain Sweden and Finland responded to the Holocaust immediately after the Second World War Holmila offers new insights into the challenge posed by the Holocaust for liberal democracies by looking at the reporting of the liberation of the camps the Nuremberg trial and the Jewish immigration to Palestine

EU Labour Migration since Enlargement Béla Galgóczi, Janine Leschke, 2016-04-22 One of the most important consequences of EU enlargement in May 2004 was to extend the principle of the free movement of labour to the citizens of the central and eastern European new member states In this book a team of labour economists and migration experts sheds light on the dimensions characteristics and impacts of cross border labour migration in selected sending Hungary Latvia and Poland and receiving Austria Germany Sweden and the UK countries Separate contributions detail the policy responses by governments employers and trade unions in these countries to the challenges posed by both inward and outward migration By setting out and analyzing the facts for seven countries which vary greatly in their geographical situation policies and outcomes the book contributes to the debate on this crucial issue in the ongoing process of European integration

Privatising Border Control Mary Bosworth, Lucia Zedner, 2022 Policing and punishment once regarded as central to the state's power and its monopoly on violence are increasingly outsourced to private providers This collection of essays explores the growing use of the private sector and private actors in border control and its implications for our understanding of state sovereignty and citizenship

The work of the UK Border Agency (April-July 2011) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2011-11-04 In this report the Committee criticises the UK Border Agency for failing to explain why 350 foreign national prisoners due to be deported are still in the country The Agency provided the Committee with a breakdown of the issues with the deportation process of 1 300 prisoners who were released between 1 April 2010 and 31 March 2011 The largest group making up 27% of the total was labelled unknown The Committee also found that the Agency has not resolved all of the asylum legacy cases first identified in 2006 within the promised 5 year timeframe Instead 18 000 ongoing cases are still awaiting a final decision The Committee highlights its concern at the dramatic increase in files transferred to the controlled archive where the Agency has lost contact with individuals in the past six months The files which are placed in the archive when every effort to track an applicant has been exhausted numbered 40 500 in March 2011 By September 2011 it had increased to 124 000 A series of specific recommendations are made the Government should commission a detailed investigation into financial waste included the writing off of bad debts overpayments to staff and asylum applicants and failure to collect civil penalties there should be better liaison between the Agency and HM Prison Service the Agency is losing too many appeals at immigration tribunals and should raise the quality of its representation all staff must be aware of the existence of bogus colleges which exist only to sponsor visa applications

Commonwealth Migration T. E. Smith, 1981-06-18 Who Needs Migrant Workers? Martin Ruhs, Bridget Anderson, 2012-05-17 Are migrant workers needed to do the jobs that locals will not do or are they simply a more exploitable labour force Do they have a better work ethic or are they less able to complain Is migrant labour the solution to skills shortages or actually part of the problem This book provides a comprehensive framework for analysing the demand for migrant workers in high income countries It demonstrates how a wide range of government policies often unrelated to migration contribute to creating a growing demand for migrant labour This demand can persist even during economic downturns The book includes quantitative and qualitative analyses of the changing role of migrants in the UK economy The empirical chapters include in depth examinations of the nature of staff shortages and the use of migrant workers in six sectors health social care hospitality food production construction and financial services The book's conceptual framework and empirical findings are of importance to academic and policy debates about labour immigration in all high income countries The final chapter presents a comparative analysis of research and policy approaches to assessing labour shortages in the UK and the US It examines the potential lessons of the UK's Migration Advisory Committee MAC for current debates about labour shortages and immigration reform in the US The book will be of significant interest to policy makers stakeholders academics and students

Militant and Migrant Radhika Chopra, 2012-03-12 This book is a study of the transformations in Punjab created by biotechnological revolutions economic restructuring persistent migrations and political upheaval in the late 20th century The sacred centre at Amritsar the transnational settlement of Southall and a Doaba village form the terrain for this three sites that can be seen as metonymic spaces of identity that transcend geographic boundaries and form the structure of this book Relations between the rural the sacred and the transnational fostered through migration marriage and material exchange existed well before 1984 After 1984 however and through the violent decades of the militancy period these three locations became connected via the circulation of political ideologies violent deaths financial aid a sense of disaffection and the migration of men Analysis of the linkages between transnational migration and religious revival is a key theme of this study Conversely the enhanced engagements of the diaspora with homeland politics became a source of support and created sanctuary spaces for political asylum seekers and transnational migrant labour Re analysing existing material and drawing on fieldwork based interviews as well as local history archives the book presents a different framework to analyse the politics and social history of Punjab

Immigration to Palestine during the British Mandate (1922-1948) Yaacov Nir, 2021-10-19 This book explores the nature of the severe conflict over immigration in Palestine during the British Mandate 1922 1948 It considers the perspectives of the British authorities the Palestinian Jewish community and the Palestinian Arabs in their permanent opposition to Jewish immigration expressed through strikes demonstrations and revolt towards the Jewish community in Palestine as well as the British authorities It serves to contribute to a debate in the history of Palestine whilst seeping into other disciplines such as economics sociology law and maritime history Daily Report United States. Foreign Broadcast Information Service, 1994 HC 825 - Effectiveness of the Committee in 2012-13 Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee, 2014 In order to monitor the effectiveness of its Reports the Home Affairs Committee maintains a colour coded grid of its recommendations Recommendations are coded green if in its view the Government has accepted them red if they have been rejected and yellow if they have been partially accepted or if the Government has undertaken to give them further consideration This Report covers the Committee's work in the 2012 13 Session The Committee will use the grid to inform its choice of inquiries over the course of the Parliament returning to earlier recommendations where it appears that there may be some merit in doing so but avoiding reduplication of earlier work where it appears unlikely to prove beneficial The Politics of Immigration in France, Britain, and the United States M. Schain, 2008-11-10 This book argues that although labour market needs have been an important element in the development of immigration policy they have been filtered through a political process the politics of immigration The book explores the relation between policy and politics in France the UK and the US Changes in Attitudes to Immigrants in Britain, 1921-2021 Ben Braber, 2025-03-04 This book reviews changes in attitudes towards immigrants in Britain and the language that was used to put these feelings into words between 1921 and 2021 It analyses in what context attitudes were articulated and where they came from To determine what was specifically British it makes international comparisons It applies a historical and linguistic method for an analysis of so far relatively unused primary sources It also explores secondary resources and to provide context engages with the existing literature that deals with immigration but is not focused on attitudes or not always covers the entire period after 1921 and links post 1921 developments to what was set in motion before 1921 to sketch a long history that runs into the present The linguistic historical approach applied in this book brings it all together for the first time It discovers when and how attitudes to immigrants in Britain changed after 1921 where they originated and what language was used to voice these attitudes in particular specific words their meanings the under or overtones they bore and what people meant or felt when they used them The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights Great Britain. Parliament. Joint Committee on Human Rights,2004 The Joint Committee on Human Rights examined the implementation of the UN International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights in the UK Domestic legislation protects many of the economic social and cultural rights with the Covenant itself having little impact in UK domestic law The Committee believes that there is scope for incorporating further protection of rights in the UK by enshrining some of the guarantees contained in the Covenant Further that for the Covenant rights to be effective they should be part of a framework for government policy development and that Government along with the Commission for Equality and Human Rights should develop ways of measuring the progress of these rights The Committee also recommends that explanatory notes to Bills should include discussion of the Bills compatibility with Covenant rights which is a way of enhancing the scrutiny of proposed Government legislation Furthermore the Committee recommends the introduction of an Equality Bill to address the concerns of discrimination faced by ethnic minorities and persons with disabilities in employment housing and education Foggy Social Structures Michael Bommes,Giuseppe Sciortino,2011 European countries are currently involved in several irregular migration systems resulting in undocumented populations estimated at several millions They manage to live and work for years without a certified identity a phenomenon that challenges existing notions of political statehood and societal membership Drawing on empirical studies carried out in a variety of settings the authors of this illuminating study analyse the ways in which such irregular migration systems developed over time interacting with changes in European labour markets welfare regimes and immigration policies Anthropology of Childhood and Youth Geoffrey Vitale,2014-07-16 In Anthropology of Childhood and Youth author Geoffrey Vitale shows the ways in which people understand raise and educate children and youth differently from century to century and from country to country according to the culture lifestyle politics and economics of their place of origin He also introduces the reader to the manner in which professionals relate to these matters with a focus on an anthropological perspective Vitale discusses similar problems and matters for inquiry a thousand years apart and separated by oceans The adoption or abandonment of children for instance created problems of inheritance sexual relationship and family support and integration in Ancient Greece just as it does today in contemporary Japan The author therefore proposes a flexible tour of human society intended essentially to introduce the reader to points of view strategies and approaches that go beyond the purely domestic both in place and time which may introduce new ideas and present new theories and diverse understandings Anthropology of Childhood and Youth establishes the work of a wide range of specialists and familiarizes readers both with their skills and their writings
