Gone To The Dogs Kate Moore,2025-05-06 The law describes author Kate Moore as a dog

thief She's stolen more than three hundred and fifty dogs throughout a period of five years It's possible she's stolen more dogs than anyone else in Canada and possibly North America But she doesn't think of herself as a thief and she doesn't feel like one Moore sees herself as a dog rescuer one who rescues abused and neglected dogs who suffer at the hands of their owners In Gone to the Dogs Moore describes her rescue theft of dozens of abused and neglected chained penned and cruelly confined dogs that the SPCA Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals refused to help despite their suffering Each chapter about the rescue of a suffering dog alternates with chapters about Moore's journey through the court system starting with her arrest and ending with her sentencing two years later This memoir reveals that rescue isn't something you dabble in it consumes your life It's stressful and emotionally and financially draining But the rewards of watching formerly terrified and traumatized dogs shed their fears and blossom into joyful confident and loving beings makes every moment worth it

Rescued Love Kenneth Wright, 2024-04-02 Sometimes love can truly take you by surprise This is how it was with us when we encountered a little lost rescue dog who needed a home When she entered our lives we began to understand the joy love and frustration only life with a rescue dog can bring Then a couple years later we invited another rescue dog into our family changing our lives in ways we could not have imagined before Are you a dog lover Or are you someone just looking to better understand the many forms love can take We invite you to take a journey with us Rescued Love will take you on a voyage through our memories of life with two rescue dogs giving you a front row seat to the ups and downs and the good and bad And through our reminiscences we hope your own memories of life with dogs you have known will be reawakened Come join us in our tale of life with our two rescue dogs our Rescued Love
